25 of 1956.

HUGH FOOT,]

[30th June, 1959

Governor.

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Colony of Cyprus as follows :—

1. This Law may be cited as the Elementary Education Short title.
(Amendment) Law, 1959, and shall be read as one with the Elementary Education Law (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Law").

Amendment
of section 44 of the principal Law.

2. Section 44 of the principal Law is hereby amended by substituting for the definition of "salary" therein contained the definition following:—

" 'salary' with respect to any teacher shall include a portion of the cost-of-living allowance paid to such teacher for the time being amounting to twelve and one half per centum of the salary of such teacher but shall otherwise be exclusive of allowances:

Provided that where a teacher has during the course of his service held posts in respect of which a duty allowance is payable for an aggregate period of not less than five years the Governor may direct that, for the purpose of computing pension, gratuity or benevolent grant, the salary shall be enhanced by a sum equal to the average of the allowance payable at the time of such computation in respect of the posts held during the last five years of the aggregate period: and Provided further that nothing in this definition shall affect prejudicially any teacher who has retired between the 1st day of September, 1942 and the 13th day of January, 1949, and whose salary has been enhanced by the inclusion of any duty allowance for the purposes of the computation of his pension."

Amendment
of the principal Law by the insertion of a new section 45A.

3. The principal Law is hereby amended by inserting immediately after section 45 thereof the section following:—

" Retirement on the grounds of ill-health.

45A.—(1) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (2) of this section any teacher eligible for a pension as provided in section 45—

- (a) who retires in the circumstances described in paragraph (b) of sub-section (1) of section 49 of this Law; and
- (b) who at the date of his retirement has completed more than ten years but less than twenty years service, may be granted an additional pension at the rate of one six-hundredth of his salary for each month by which his service falls short of twenty years or by which his age at such date falls short of sixty years whichever is less.

(2) The provisions of sub-section (1) of this section shall not apply in the case of a teacher—

- (a) who is permanently injured and entitled to benefits under the Workmen's Compensation Law; or
- (b) who is permanently injured and eligible to receive an additional pension under the provisions of section 53 of this Law:

Provided that if the pension for which such teacher is eligible under the provisions of the said section 53 is less than the additional pension for which he would otherwise be eligible under the

Cap. 216
14 of 1951
22 of 1952
1 of 1954
67 of 1955.

provisions of this section, such teacher may be granted an additional pension under this section in lieu of an additional pension under the provisions of section 53 of this Law.”.

4. Section 45A of the principal Law is hereby amended by re-designating the said section “ Section 45B ”.

Amendment
of the existing section 45A
of the principal Law.

5. This Law shall be deemed to have come into force on the first day of January, 1957.
