AN ORDINANCE

TO AMEND THE MOTOR VEHICLES AND ROAD TRAFFIC
ORDINANCE, 1973.

H.D.A. LANGLEY, ADMINISTRATOR.

12th August, 1985.

BE it enacted by the Administrator of the Sovereign Base Areas of Akrotiri and Dhekelia as follows :—

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Motor Vehicles and Road Traffic (Amendment) Ordinance, 1985 and shall be read as one with the Motor Vehicles and Road Traffic Ordinance, 1973 as amended from time to time (hereinafter referred to as “the principal Ordinance”).

Short title.

Ordinances
8 of 1973,
5 of 1982 and
2 of 1983.

2. The principal Ordinance is hereby amended by repealing Section 4 thereof and substituting therefor the following new Section :—

Section 4 of the principal Ordinance repealed and replaced.

“Speed limits.

4.—(1) If any person drives a motor vehicle on a road at a speed which is likely to endanger human life or to cause harm or injury to any person or property, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, including the nature, condition and use of the road, and the amount of traffic which is actually at the time, or which might reasonably be expected to be on the road, he shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to imprisonment not exceeding two years or to a fine not exceeding one thousand pounds or to both such imprisonment and fine.

(2) The Chief Officer may fix in respect of a road a maximum or minimum speed limit (and in respect of a road situated within the built up area of any military cantonment or camp or village the former shall not exceed forty miles per hour) and indicate such speed limit by sign posts placed on such road, in such a position as to give adequate guidance to drivers using the road and may change any speed limit so fixed :

Provided that until such maximum speed limit is fixed by the Chief Officer the speed limit within the built up area of any village or of any military cantonment or camp shall not exceed thirty miles per hour.

(3) If any person drives a motor vehicle on a road at a speed in excess of the maximum or at a speed lesser of the minimum speed limit fixed by the Chief Officer under the provisions of subsection (2) of this Section and the proviso thereto, he shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable, on conviction, to imprisonment not exceeding one year or to fine not exceeding seven hundred and fifty pounds or to both such imprisonment and fine.

(4) The Chief Officer may, by notice published in the Gazette, fix the maximum speed limit in respect of any type of motor vehicles specified in the notice and indicate the manner in which such speed limit shall be marked on such vehicle.

(5) If any person drives a motor vehicle at a speed in excess of the maximum speed limit fixed by a notice under the provisions of subsection (4) or in contravention of the manner, specified in the notice, in which the maximum speed limit shall be marked on the vehicle, he shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable, on conviction, to imprisonment not exceeding one year or to a fine not exceeding seven hundred and fifty pounds or to both such imprisonment and fine.

(6) The provisions of subsections (3) and (5) of this Section shall not apply to any vehicle on an occasion when it is being used by a Fire Service as defined in the Fire Services Ordinance, 1968, or as an ambulance or to any vehicle used by the Crown in any capacity if the observance of these provisions would be likely to hinder the use of the vehicle for the proper purpose for which it is being used in that occasion."

Ordinance
1 of 1968.

Section 17 of the principal Ordinance
amended.

3. Section 17 of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended by deleting the words "motor vehicle licence" appearing in the second line of subsection (5) thereof and substituting therefor the words "a licence to drive."

12th August, 1985.

A. J. CRAGG,
Chief Officer.
