THE HOURS OF EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE.

ORDER MADE UNDER SECTION 2(1).

In exercise of the powers vested in him by paragraph (1) of Section 2 of the Hours of Employment Ordinance the Administrator hereby orders as follows:-

Cap. 182
(Laws of Cyprus).

1. This Order may be cited as the Employees (Hours of Employment) Order, 1961.

2. In this Order unless the context otherwise requires -

“day” means a period of twenty-four hours commencing from midnight and ending on the following midnight;

“employee” means any person employed in a clerical, executive or administrative capacity, in any establishment, office or premises to which this Order applies and includes any office boy or messenger, but does not include any employer, partner, manager, officer of a company, or any traveller or representative carrying on work outside the establishment or any person employed in the service of his father, mother, grandfather or grandmother, wife or husband;

“employer” means any person or body of persons, either corporate or unincorporate, having charge of any establishment, office or premises to which this Order applies or owning the business carried on therein and includes the legal personal representative of a deceased employer;

Cap. 178
(Laws of Cyprus).

“industrial undertaking” has the meaning assigned to it by section 2(1) of the Children and Young Persons (Employment) Ordinance;

“week” means the period from 6.00 a.m. on Monday to 6.00 p.m. on the following Saturday;

“work” means clerical, executive, or administrative work or partly clerical, executive or administrative work and partly otherwise and includes the work done by an office boy or messenger.

Cap. 165
(Laws of Cyprus).

3. This Order shall apply to any establishment, office or premises where any commercial trading or banking enterprise or any professional or other business is carried on other than an establishment, office or premises where an industrial undertaking is carried on or where the examination, treatment or care of the sick or destitute is conducted or for which other provision has been made by the Shop Assistants Ordinance or any other law in force for the time being or by any Rule, Regulation or Order made thereunder in force for the time being.

4. No employee shall work, nor shall any employer cause or permit any employee employed by him to do any work, for a period amounting in the aggregate to more than forty four hours, excluding meal times, in any one week, or to more than eight hours, excluding meal times, in any one day.

5. Nothing in this Order shall apply -

- (a) in case of any accident, actual or threatened, force majeure, or urgent work to machinery or plant, but only so far as may be necessary to avoid serious interference with the ordinary working of the establishment, office or premises;
- (b) in case of any work necessary to prevent loss of perishable goods or to avoid any danger to the technical results of the work;
- (c) in case of any special work including stock-taking, the preparation of balance sheets, settlement days, liquidations, and the balancing and closing of accounts;
- (d) in case of any abnormal pressure of work due to special circumstances, in so far as the employer cannot ordinarily be expected to resort to other measures, but save as regards paragraph (a) of this paragraph, the number of additional hours worked shall not exceed two hours per day or four hours per week.

6. Nothing in this Order shall affect-

- (a) any Customs law in force for the time being or Rule, Regulation, or Order made thereunder;
- (b) the other terms and conditions of employment of any employee or shall be deemed to entitle the employer to alter, in consequence of this Order, such terms and conditions.

7. Any person who acts in contravention of, or fails to comply with, the provisions of this Order shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to imprisonment not exceeding six months or to a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds or to both such imprisonment and fine.

Dated this 12th day of July, 1961.

By the Administrator's Command,
I. M. G. WILLIAMS,
Chief Officer.

THE HOURS OF EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE.

ORDER MADE UNDER SECTION 2 (1).

In exercise of the powers vested in him by paragraph (1) of Section 2 of the Hours of Employment Ordinance the Administrator hereby orders as follows:-

Cap. 182
(Laws of Cyprus).

1. This Order may be cited as the Mines and Quarries (Hours of Employment) Order 1961.

2. In this Order unless the context otherwise requires -

“day” means a period of twenty-four hours commencing from midnight and ending on the following midnight;

“employer” means any employer engaged in mining or quarrying business and includes any person or body of persons either corporate or unincorporate and the legal personal representatives of a deceased employer;

Cap. 270
(Laws of Cyprus).

“mine”, “mining”, “quarry” and “quarrying” have the meaning assigned to them by sections 2 and 3 of the Mines and Quarries (Regulation) Ordinance;

“miner” means any person employed either temporarily or permanently to do any mining work, but does not include any person holding any position of management who does not perform manual work, or any person employed in health and welfare services of any mining industry;

“quarrier” means any person employed either temporarily or permanently to do any quarrying work but does not include any person holding any position of management who does not perform manual work, or any person employed in health and welfare services of any quarrying industry;

“week” means the period from midnight on Sunday to midnight on the following Sunday.

3. No miner shall work underground, nor shall any employer cause or permit any miner employed by him to do any underground work, for a period amounting in the aggregate to more than forty hours, excluding mealtimes, in any one week or for more than eight hours, excluding mealtimes, in any one day.

4. No miner shall work on the surface, nor shall any employer cause or permit any miner employed by him to do any surface work, for a period amounting in the aggregate to more than forty-four hours, excluding mealtimes, in any one week, or to more than eight hours, excluding mealtimes, in any one day.

5. No quarrier shall work, nor shall any employer cause or permit any quarrier employed by him to do any work, for a period amounting in the aggregate to more than forty-four hours, excluding mealtimes, in any one week, or to more than eight hours, excluding mealtimes, in any one day.

6. This Order shall not apply -

- (a) to any work in connection with the ventilation of any mine or quarry, the prevention of damage to the ventilation apparatus, safety work, or first aid in the case of accident or sickness in relation to any mine or quarry;
- (b) to any survey work connected with any mine or quarry in so far as this cannot be done on another day without interrupting or disturbing the work of such mine or quarry;
- (c) to any urgent work in connection with machinery and other appliances, which cannot be carried out during the regular working time of any mine or quarry and in cases of any accident, actual or threatened, emergency, force majeure or other urgent or exceptional cases which are outside the control of the employer.

7. Nothing in this Order shall affect the other terms and conditions of employment of a miner or quarrier or shall be deemed to entitle the employer to alter, in consequence of this Order, such terms and conditions.

8. Any person who contravenes, or fails to comply with, the provisions of this Order shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable to imprisonment not exceeding six months or to a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds or to both such imprisonment and fine.

Dated this 11th day of July, 1961.
