THE FOREST ORDINANCE, 1980

(Ordinance 14 of 1980).

REGULATIONS MADE BY THE ADMINISTRATOR
UNDER SECTION 24.

In exercise of the powers vested in him by Section 24 of the Forest Ordinance, 1980, the Administrator hereby makes the following Regulations :—

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Forest Regulations, 1980. Short title.

2.—(1) A licence to cut, take, extract, convert or remove any forest produce from any State Forest, the control over which is not vested under these Regulations in any other person, may be issued on application made to the Chief Officer. Issue of licences to cut forest produce.

(2) An application for a licence to cut, take, extract, convert or remove any forest produce from any State Forest shall contain a full description of the kind of forest produce in respect of which it is made and of the locality in which it is found and shall state the quantity required.

(3) A licence issued upon an application made under paragraph (2) of this Regulation shall specify the time within which the forest produce shall be removed from the State Forest, and the route by which and the manner in which it shall be removed.

(4) There shall be paid by the licensee, for any forest produce in respect of which a licence is issued under this Regulation, such charges as may be fixed from time to time by the Chief Officer, regard being had to the prices obtaining in the market for such forest produce.

3.—(1) Subject to paragraph (3) of this Regulation, no person shall cut, transport, or convey any timber or any other forest produce — Transport of timber and other forest produce.

(a) from a Main State Forest or any private forest placed under the control of the Administration, save under a licence from the Chief Officer ;

(b) from a Minor State Forest or any private forest not placed under the control of the Administration or from any other land in the Areas, save under a licence from the Chief Officer :

Provided that no licence shall be issued for the cutting, transport or conveyance of timber from any private forest not placed under the control of the Administration or from any other land in the Areas unless the person desiring to obtain such licence produces to the Chief Officer a certificate of the Chairman of the Village Commission of the village in which such forest or land is situated, verifying that such forest or land is the property of such person or that such person has obtained the consent of the owner of the same for the cutting, transport or conveyance of such timber.

(2) Where any timber consists of logs or of sawn or fashioned wood, it shall not be transported or conveyed from any Main State Forest or any Minor State Forest or any private forest or any other land in the Areas unless and until it shall have been stamped with a marking instrument approved by the Chief Officer.

(3) Nothing in this Regulation contained shall apply —

(a) to any imported timber ;

(b) to any forest produce other than timber belonging to any person and transported or conveyed from his own land for his own domestic purposes and not for sale.

4. No person shall knowingly possess or sell any forest produce which has been cut, taken, extracted or removed in contravention of the Ordinance or of these Regulations.

5.—(1) No sawmill or wood utilizing plant or wood burning steam engine, still or kiln for making or producing bricks, tiles, lime, gypsum, cement, terra umbra, charcoal, gum, resin, turpentine, tar, pitch or other produce shall be erected, used or worked in the Areas, save under a licence from the Chief Officer :

Provided that nothing in this Regulation contained shall apply to a still for making zivania, erected, used or worked in any part of the Areas, not being a State Forest.

(2) A licence for the erection, use or working of a sawmill or other wood utilizing plant may be issued on application made to the Chief Officer. Such application shall contain full particulars regarding —

(a) the capacity of the sawmill or wood utilizing plant and the type of finished product which it is proposed to manufacture ;

(b) the place at which it is proposed to erect, use or work the sawmill or wood utilizing plant ;

(c) the arrangements made or to be made for the supply of the timber raw material required.

(3) A licence for the erection, use or working of a wood burning steam engine may be issued on application made to the Chief Officer. Such application shall contain full particulars regarding —

(a) the make, type and horse power of the engine ;

(b) the place at which it is proposed to erect, use or work the engine ; and

(c) the kind and approximate quantity of fuel which it is proposed to consume each year and the arrangements made or to be made for its supply.

Unlawful possession, etc., of forest produce.

Application for licence to erect a sawmill or wood utilizing plant.

(4) A licence for the erection, use or working of a kiln may be issued on application to the Chief Officer. Such application shall contain full particulars regarding —

- (a) the type of the kiln and the purpose for which it is to be erected, used or worked ;
- (b) the place at which it is proposed to erect, use or work the kiln ;
- (c) the kind and approximate quantity of fuel which it is proposed to consume in connection with the use or working of the kiln and the arrangements made or to be made for its supply.

6. Every person holding a licence under Regulation 5 shall, if so required by the Chief Officer, keep such books in respect of the wood or fuel consumed by him or in his possession and the sources or the names of the persons from whom such wood or fuel was obtained, and to render such returns and accounts in respect thereof and at such times, as the Chief Officer or his representative may direct.

Books and returns by holders of a licence under Regulation 5.

7.—(1) Any stray cattle found in any State Forest may be impounded by any forest officer, peace officer, Chairman or member of Village Commission, or rural constable.

Stray cattle.

(2) Stray cattle may be kept in pound for a period not exceeding seven days at any one time and during that period the person impounding the same shall cause the same to be properly kept, fed and watered :

Provided that in any such case the costs and expenses in that connection shall not exceed two hundred mils per head of cattle for each day.

(3) At any time before the expiration of the period in paragraph (2) of this Regulation provided, the owner of the cattle may claim the same and such cattle, upon payment by the owner of the poundage fee in paragraph (5) of this Regulation provided, together with any costs and expenses incurred in connection with the keeping and maintaining of the same (not exceeding two hundred mils per head of cattle for each day), shall be returned to the owner.

(4) If the owner of any cattle impounded under the provisions of this Regulation does not claim the same within the period in paragraph (2) of this Regulation provided or if he fails to pay the poundage fee and the costs and expenses of their maintenance as in paragraph (3) of this Regulation provided, the cattle shall become the property of the Administration and may be sold or otherwise disposed of in such manner as the Chief Officer or his representative may direct.

(5) The poundage fee shall be two hundred mils per head of cattle for each day or part of a day during which the cattle remains in pound.

(6) Any person who unlawfully takes out of any pound any cattle impounded under the provisions of this Regulation shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding ten pounds.

Marking instruments.

8.—(1) No person shall manufacture, use or possess any timber marking instruments, save under a licence from the Chief Officer.

(2) A licence for the manufacture, use or possession of a timber marking instrument may be issued upon application to the Chief Officer. Such application shall contain full particulars regarding the purpose for which the timber marking instrument shall be used and shall be accompanied by a full scale design of the imprint of such instrument.

Camping in the forests.

9.—(1) No person shall erect or occupy any tent, caravan, hut or any other structure in any State Forest, save under a licence from the Chief Officer.

(2) A licence for the erection or occupation of a tent, caravan, hut, or any other structure may be issued upon application to the Chief Officer. Such application shall contain full particulars regarding the location, purpose and the duration for which the tent, caravan, hut or other structure is proposed to be erected or occupied.

Use of Forest for trade or business transactions.

10.—(1) No person shall install or use any kiosk, bench, car, van or any other structure for the purpose of conducting trade or other business transactions or erect any signpost or advertisement or publicity poster in any State Forest, save under a licence from the Chief Officer.

(2) A licence for the installation or use of a kiosk, bench, car, van or other structure for the purpose of conducting trade or other business transactions or for the erection of a signpost or an advertisement or publicity poster may be issued upon application to the Chief Officer. Such application shall contain full particulars regarding the location, purpose, and duration for which the kiosk, bench, car, van or other structure will be installed and used.

Use of forest roads.

11.—(1) The Chief Officer may, by announcement broadcast or published in any newspaper of the Republic, prohibit the use of any forest road or part thereof for such period as may on each occasion be specified in the said announcement.

(2) The Chief Officer may, by posting up a suitable notice, specify from time to time —

- (a) the weight, size and tare of vehicles that may be allowed to travel on forest roads ;
- (b) the speed limits to be observed by persons permitted to use forest roads ;
- (c) the direction of travel on forest roads (one way roads) ;
- (d) any other measure that may be deemed necessary for the proper and safe use of forest roads.

(3) Any person who acts in contravention of any announcement or of any specifications of the Chief Officer under this Regulation shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding ten pounds and, in addition, to payment of compensation for any damage that may have been caused to a forest road.

Use of forest telephones.

12.—(1) Save with the permission of the Chief Officer, no person shall use a forest telephone, except for reporting a forest fire.

(2) Application to use a forest telephone shall be made to the nearest forest officer or authorised telephone attendant and permission may be granted on payment of the fees fixed, from time to time, by the Chief Officer and subject in any case to the general rules for the use of telephones.

13. Every licence issued under the provisions of these Regulations shall be carried by the licensee and shall be produced by him for inspection whenever so requested by any forest officer, peace officer, Chairman or member of Village Commission or rural constable.

Licences to be carried by the licensees.

14. Any licence issued under the provisions of these Regulations may contain such terms and conditions as the authority issuing the same may in each case deem fit to impose.

Terms and conditions in licences.

15.—(1) Any licence issued under these Regulations may be terminated or revoked by the authority issuing the same if the licensee —

Termination, revocation and forfeiture of licences.

(a) is convicted of any offence under the Ordinance or these Regulations ;

(b) fails to observe, or acts in contravention of, any term or condition contained in such licence (without prejudice to any proceedings which may be taken in respect of such offence).

(2) Every licence terminated or revoked under the provisions of this Regulation, shall be forfeited to the authority issuing the same.

16. Any person who contravenes, or fails to observe or comply with, any of these Regulations or any Rules made thereunder or any of the terms or conditions contained in any licence issued under these Regulations shall be guilty of an offence against these Regulations and, unless some other penalty has been provided in respect thereof, shall be liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year or to a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds or to both such imprisonment and fine.

Penalties.

17. Any forest produce or timber taken, sold or possessed in contravention of the Ordinance or of these Regulations and any tools, tractors, marking instruments or other instruments, by means of which any offence against the Ordinance or these Regulations has been committed may be seized and detained by any forest officer, peace officer, Chairman or member of Village Commission or rural constable.

Seizure of forest produce, etc.

18. The Chief Officer may, from time to time, fix the fees which shall be paid for any licence that may be issued under these Regulations, regard being had to the prices obtaining in the market for such forest produce or services to be offered, except for the issue of licences in respect of the several matters set out in the first column of the Appendix.

Fees for licences.

Appendix.

19. For the purposes of these Regulations, wherever the power for the issue of licences is vested in the Chief Officer, the term "Chief Officer" shall also include any person duly authorised by the Chief Officer to issue licences in that behalf.

"Chief Officer" to include, in certain cases, persons authorised by him.
