No. 11THE LAND ACQUISITION ORDINANCE

(Cap. 226 — Laws of Cyprus — and Ordinances 12 of 1963, 9 of 1964, 1 of 1986, 4 of 1987 and 19 of 1988).

NOTIFICATION UNDER SECTION 7.

Whereas by Public Instrument No. 157 published in Supplement No. 3 to the Gazette No. 914 of the 22nd October, 1990 the Administrator declared the construction of public roads outside the affected area of the Agricultural Land Consolidation area in the village of Ypsonas in the Sovereign Base Area of Akrotiri to be an undertaking of public utility ;

And whereas the Area Officer, Akrotiri, in compliance with subsection (1) of Section 6 of the Land Acquisition Ordinance and by Public Instrument No. 175 of 1990 gave particulars of the land required in connection with the said undertaking of public utility (hereinafter referred to as “the property”);

And whereas the Area Officer, Akrotiri, in compliance with subsection (2) of the said Section, forwarded to the Administrator the required recommendations, plan and particulars ;

And whereas the Administrator has approved the plan and particulars submitted and has considered it expedient, having regard to the circumstances of the case, that the property be acquired ;

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers vested in him by Section 7 of the Land Acquisition Ordinance, the Administrator hereby sanctions the acquisition of the property under the provisions of the said Ordinance.

Dated this 23rd day of January, 1991.

By the Administrator's Command,
A.J.H. ADAMS,
Chief Officer,
Sovereign Base Areas.

THE CONTAGIOUS DISEASES (ANIMALS)

ORDINANCE, 1988

(Ordinance 22 of 1988).

ORDER UNDER SECTION 4 (1) (k) (l).

In exercise of the powers vested in him by Section 4 (1) (k) (l) of the Contagious Diseases (Animals) Ordinance, 1988 the Administrator hereby makes the following Order :—

1. This Order may be cited as the Prevention of the Introduction and Spreading of Bovine Spongiform Encephalopathy (BSE) and of Scrapie Order, 1991.

2. In this Order—

“animal” means all ruminants (bovines, sheep, goats, deer, etc.).

“animal feed” means all meatmeals, bonemeals and any other form of animal feed which may contain protein derived from ruminants.

3. The importation of animal feed into the Areas or the Republic from countries where cases of Bovine Spongiform Encephalopathy or Scrapie have been confirmed, shall be prohibited:

Provided that animal feed intended for the Areas or the Republic which had been loaded before the 21st September, 1990, may be imported therein, so long as the said importation occurred in accordance with the veterinary stipulations in force, also provided that the veterinary certificate issued in the country of origin, confirms that the by-products referred to in paragraph 6 of this Order, were not used in the preparation of the said animal feed.

4.—(1) The use of animal feed in maintaining ruminants shall be prohibited.

(2)—Factories which utilise the remnants from slaughtered animals, shall be obliged to apply on their prepackaged products, a clear indication, prohibiting the usage thereof for the feeding of ruminants.

5. (1) The importation of beef, with or without bone, from countries where cases of Bovine Spongiform Encephalopathy have been confirmed, shall be permitted, only where certification is provided by the Appropriate Veterinary Service of the country of origin, that the animals from which the meat derived, emanate from cattle farms in which, no case of Bovine Spongiform Encephalopathy has occurred for at least the last two years and that such animals were slaughtered in Slaughter Houses which were approved by the European Economic Community.

(2) Such beef must not contain spinal cord and must, as much as possible, be free from lymphatic or nerve tissue.

6. The importation from countries where cases of Bovine Spongiform Encephalopathy have been confirmed of the following by-products deriving from ruminants, shall be prohibited :—

brain heads and spinal cord, thymus glands,
spleen,
lymph glands,
tonsils,
intestines.

7. Any animals or animal feed either unloaded and/or imported in the Areas or the Republic in contravention of the provisions of this Order shall be liable to be confiscated and destroyed and no compensation of any form shall be payable therefor.

8. This Order shall not apply where animal feed is imported directly into the Areas, where such direct importation shall be deemed necessary for military requirements.

Dated this 31st day of January, 1991.

By the Administrator's Command,
A.J.H. ADAMS,
Chief Officer,
Sovereign Base Areas.

THE CONTAGIOUS DISEASES (ANIMALS) ORDINANCE
(Ordinance 22 of 1988).

ORDER UNDER SECTION 4 (1) (k) (l).

In exercise of the powers vested in him by Section 4 (1) (k) (l) of the Contagious Diseases (Animals) Ordinance, 1988 the Administrator hereby makes the following Order :—

1. This Order may be cited as the Prevention of the Introduction and Spreading of Bovine Spongiform Encephalopathy (BSE) and of Scrapie (Amendment) Order, 1991 and shall be read as one with the Prevention of the Introduction and Spreading of Bovine Spongiform Encephalopathy (BSE) and of Scrapie Order, 1991 (hereinafter referred to as “the principal Order”).

P.I. No. 12/91.

2. Paragraph 3 of the principal Order is hereby amended by inserting immediately thereafter the following proviso:—

brain heads, spinal cord, spleen, thymus glands, tonsils and intestines.”

3. Paragraph 5 of the principal Order is hereby amended by deleting sub-paragraph (1) thereof and substituting therefor the following paragraph:—

“(1) The importation of beef, with or without bone from countries where cases of Bovine Spongiform Encephalopathy have been confirmed, shall be permitted only where certification is provided by the Competent Veterinary Service of the country of origin to the effect that the animals from which the meat derived, emanate from cattle farms in which no case of Bovine Spongiform Encephalopathy occurred for at least the last two years and that such animals were slaughtered in Slaughter Houses which are approved by the European Economic Community.”

Dated this 31st day of January, 1991.

By the Administrator's Command,
A.J.H. ADAMS,
Chief Officer,
Sovereign Base Areas.

THE CONTAGIOUS DISEASES (ANIMALS)
ORDINANCE, 1988
(Ordinance 22 of 1988).

ORDER MADE UNDER SECTION 4 (1) (j) (k) and (l).

In exercise of the powers vested in him by Section 4 (1) (j) (k) and (l) of the Contagious Diseases (Animals) Ordinance, the Administrator hereby makes the following Order :—

1. This Order may be cited as the Regulation of Importation and Unloading of Animals, Animal Derivatives, Biological Products and Animal Feed Order, 1991.

2. In this Order—

“Area Officer” includes any person authorised in that behalf by the Area Officer;

“animal” means all mammalia, birds, reptiles, insects, fish, testacea and mollusca;

“animal feed” means animal feed of either animal or vegetable origin;

“animal derivatives” means any products, by-products, preparations and generally any similar products of animal origin;

“biological products” means any preparations of biological products relating to the health of animals.

3. The importation of any quantity (whether in numbers or weight) of animals, animal derivatives, biological products and animal feed also the unloading thereof from any vessel, aircraft or other means of transport, to any port or airport in the Areas shall be prohibited, unless a written permit from the Area Officer has previously been obtained. Furthermore, to enable such importation and unloading, all the relevant veterinary conditions which are required for the issuing of an import licence, must also be satisfied.

4. Any animals, animal derivatives, biological preparations and animal feed which may be imported and unloaded to the Areas in contravention of the provisions of this Order, shall be liable to confiscation and will be destroyed in the appropriate manner, as the case may be and no compensation shall be payable therefor.

5. This Order shall not apply where animal feed is imported directly into the Areas where such direct importation shall be deemed necessary for military requirements.

6. Public Instruments Nos. 600 of 1951, 216 of 1954 and 67 of 1976 are hereby revoked.

Dated this 31st day of January, 1991.

By the Administrator's Command,
A.J.H. ADAMS,
Chief Officer,
Sovereign Base Areas.
