A LAW TO PROVIDE FOR THE IMPOSITION OF CURFEWS IN THE INTERESTS OF PUBLIC SAFETY AND THE MAINTENANCE OF PUBLIC ORDER.

[2nd May, 1955.]

Short title.

1. This Law may be cited as the Curfews Law.

Imposition of curfews.

2. The Governor may, if he deems it expedient so to do in the interests of public safety and the maintenance of public order, at any time by Order direct that no person in any area specified in the Order shall be out of doors between such hours as may be prescribed by the Order except under the authority of a written permit granted by such person as may be specified in the Order :

Provided that the Governor may exempt from the provisions of the Order such persons or class of persons as may be specified in such Order :

Provided further that the Governor may authorise any person specified in the Order to suspend at his absolute discretion the operation in any specified area (or any part thereof) of the Order, and similarly to terminate such suspension and to declare the Order to be in operation.

Delegation of Governor's powers.
2 of 47/55.

3. The Governor may, by instrument under his hand to be published in the Gazette, delegate to any person, subject to such limitations and directions as he may in such instrument provide, any of the powers conferred upon him by the provisions of section 2 of this Law.

Offences and penalties.

4. Any person who contravenes any of the provisions of an Order made under section 2 shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year or to a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds or to both such imprisonment and fine.
