LEGISLATION.

THE STATUTE LAWS OF CYPRUS

No. 19 OF 1960.

A LAW TO AMEND THE POLICE LAW.

Hugh Foot,]
Governor.

Be it enacted by His Excellency the Government and Commander-in-Chief of the Colony of Cyprus as follows:—

1. This Law may be cited as the Police (Amendment) Law, 1960, and shall be read as one with the Police Law, 1958, (hereinafter referred to as the "principal Law") and the principal Law and this Law may together be cited as the Police Laws, 1958 to 1960.

(39)
2. Section 3 of the principal Law is hereby repealed and the following substituted therefor:—

3.—(1) There shall be established in the Colony security forces consisting of the Police Force and the Gendarmerie.

(2) 'The Police Force shall be responsible for

(a) the areas enclosed within the municipal limits of Famagusta and Varoshia, Ktima and Kato Paphos and Kyrenia;

(b) the municipal areas and certain additional suburban areas of Nicosia, Limassol and Larnaca.

(3) The Gendarmerie shall be responsible for all areas not allocated to the Police under subsection (2)’.

3.—(1) The principal Law shall have effect as if for any reference therein to the "police" a reference to the "police or gendarmerie" or to the "police and gendarmerie", as the context may require, were substituted and for any reference therein to the "Chief Constable", a reference to the "Commander" were substituted.

(2) The provisions of the principal Law mentioned in the first column of the Schedule shall have effect subject to the amendments specified in the second column of that Schedule.

4. The principal Law is hereby amended by the insertion therein immediately after section 43 of the following new section:—

43A. The conditions of appointment, enlistment, promotion, service and discharge of part-time retained firemen shall be in accordance with Regulations made under Section 50 of this Law.”.
