An Ordinance to make provision for certain legislation made by the Republic of Cyprus in relation to agriculture to apply in the Sovereign Base Areas

BE it enacted by the Administrator of the Sovereign Base Areas of Akrotiri and Dhekelia as follows—

Short title

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Agricultural Provisions Ordinance 2007.(a)

Interpretation

- 2.—(1) In this Ordinance –

“agricultural law” means a Law of the Republic which is listed in Schedule 1 together with –

- (a) any amendment made to such a Law (whenever enacted);
- (b) any public instrument made under such a Law (whenever enacted);
- (c) any amendment made to such a public instrument (whenever enacted);

“officer of the Areas” means a person authorised by the Chief Officer under section 5 to exercise any powers or perform any duties in accordance with this Ordinance;

“officer of the Republic” means –

- (d) a person who, whether or not he is a member of the public service of the Republic;
- (e) a body of persons which, whether or not it is an official body and whether or not it is incorporated, has any powers conferred, or any duties imposed upon him or it, by or under any agricultural law.

- (2) Any reference in this Ordinance to a provision of the Areas and a provision of the Republic corresponding one to the other will be construed as a reference to provisions of the Areas and of the Republic respectively whose effects are similar or substantially similar.

General application

3.—(1) Subject to the other provisions of this Ordinance, all such rights, powers, liabilities, obligations, offences (b) and restrictions from time to time created or arising in the Republic by or under any agricultural law and all such remedies, penalties (c) and procedures from time to time provided for by or under such a law will, subject to necessary modification and so far as possible, be recognised and available in law in the Areas and allowed and followed accordingly.

(2) An agricultural law will, unless the Chief Officer by Order to be published in the Gazette otherwise directs, only take effect in the Areas in accordance with subsection (1) after the expiry of 60 days from the date on which that law or any provision of that law came into force in the Republic.

(a) This Ordinance may be cited as the Agricultural Provisions (Amendment) Ordinance 2014 and comes into force on the 29th August 2014.

(b) Text inserted by Ordinance 29/2014 – came into force on 30 August 2014

(c) Text inserted by Ordinance 29/2014 – came into force on 30 August 2014

(3) Subsection (1) does not apply to any power or duty contained in an agricultural law which permits or requires a person or body to make a public instrument of any kind.

(4) An agricultural law which is given effect to in the Areas by virtue of subsection (1) is treated as if it is subordinate legislation made under this Ordinance.

Modifications and adaptations

4.—(1) The application of an agricultural law in the Areas is, unless the context otherwise requires, subject to the following –

- (a) where an agricultural law is repealed or revoked but is not replaced by the Republic it will cease to have effect in the Areas;
- (b) where an agricultural law is repealed and replaced by the Republic with another agricultural law, the agricultural law included in Schedule 1 will continue to have effect in the Areas;
- (c) where a provision of an agricultural law contains a reference to any other Republican legislation, then –
  - (i) if there is a provision of the Areas (including a provision which has effect in accordance with section 3) corresponding to that other Republican provision, the reference will be construed as a reference to the corresponding provision of the Areas;
  - (ii) in any other case, the provision of the agricultural law containing that reference will not have effect in the Areas;
- (d) a reference to the Republic in an agricultural law will be construed as a reference to the Areas;
- (e) a provision contained in an agricultural law which –
  - (i) permits or requires the establishment of a body (whether incorporated or not) for the purpose of exercising any duties imposed or powers conferred on it by that law; or
  - (ii) permits or requires the establishment of a body (whether incorporated or not) for the purpose of providing assistance to any officer of the Republic in connection with any such duties or powers conferred or imposed on him by that law; and
  - (iii) in either case creates any liability or duty in relation to the establishment, functioning or termination of such a body, will not have effect in the Areas.

(2) The application of an agricultural law in the Areas will, unless the context otherwise requires, be subject to the following interpretations notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in an agricultural law –

“Court” will mean the Resident Judge’s Court or the Senior Judges’ Court as appropriate;

“intra-community trade” will mean a trade transaction in products between member States, including for these purposes the Areas or the Republic, but does not include trade between the Areas and the Republic;

“member State” will mean a member State of the European Union excluding the Republic of Cyprus;

“third country” will mean a country or territory other than a member State, the Areas or the Republic but includes any part of the Island of Cyprus not under the effective control of the Republic or the Administration.

(2A) For the purposes of this Ordinance and anything made or having effect under it, the Areas are deemed to be treated as if they were part of the territory of the Republic.

(2B) Where an agricultural law refers to a “member state of the European Union” but does not include a reference to the Republic, it also does not include reference to the Areas.

(3) The Administrator may by Order to be published in the Gazette provide for the application of an agricultural law in the Areas to be subject to such additional exceptions, adaptations or modifications, from such date as may be specified in the order, as he may consider expedient in the circumstances.

(4) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (3), the Administrator may by Order provide for an agricultural law to cease to have effect in the Areas from such date as may be specified in the order.

Powers and duties (b)

~~5. (1) Any power conferred or duty imposed on an officer of the Republic under an agricultural law is, subject to subsections (3) and (5), deemed to be conferred or, as the case may be, imposed on the Chief Officer.~~

~~(2) Any power conferred or duty imposed on the Chief Officer by virtue of subsection (1) may, subject to any restrictions or conditions imposed by the Administrator under this section or under an order made under section 4, be lawfully exercised, or as the case may require, may lawfully be performed in the Areas or elsewhere by such officer of the Republic as is authorised to exercise a similar power or required to perform a similar duty in the Republic by or under an agricultural law.~~

~~(3) Any power conferred or duty imposed on an officer of the Republic under an agricultural law to carry out any form of inspection (however described) of any goods which are intended for import into or export from the Areas is deemed to be conferred or, as the case may be, imposed on the Fiscal Officer.~~

~~(4) Where a power is conferred or duty imposed on the Fiscal Officer by virtue of subsection (3) he may –~~

~~(a) by Order provide for it lawfully to be exercised, or as the case may require, lawfully to be performed in the Areas or elsewhere by such officer of the Republic as he designates in the Order; or~~

~~(b) direct that the products may upon their arrival or prior to their departure be taken to another place, whether in the Areas or the Republic, in order for the inspection to be carried out and may direct that such inspection be carried out by an appropriate officer of the Republic.~~

~~(5) Any body which, in the Republic, is created as a result of a provision of the kind referred to in section 4(1)(e) will be recognised in the Areas as having the same rights and duties as if that body had been established under the provisions of this Ordinance and will have the same powers and duties as those conferred or imposed upon that body in the Republic for the purpose of carrying out its objects as specified in that provision in the Republic.~~

~~(6) Without prejudice to subsection (2), the Chief Officer may authorise an officer of the Areas to perform any duty or to exercise any power contained in an agricultural law subject to such restrictions or conditions as he may specify.~~

~~(7) For the purposes of this Ordinance, the exercise of any power or the performance of any duty includes the doing of any act or thing which is permitted or required to be done in relation to the exercise of that power or the performance of that duty.~~

~~(8) Nothing in this Ordinance will have the effect of –~~

~~(a) entitling an officer of the Republic to exercise any power or requiring him to perform any duty in or in relation to the Areas otherwise than –~~

(a) Subsections (2A) and (2B) inserted by Ordinance 51/2020 – came into force on 01 January 2021

(b) Section 5 repealed and replaced by Ordinance 51/2020 – came into force on 01 January 2021

- ~~(i) pursuant to subsections (2), (4) or (5), and~~
- ~~(ii) in accordance with the agricultural law under which he purports to act;~~

~~(b) abridging or in any other way affecting any powers or duties of the Chief Officer, Fiscal Officer or officer of the Areas, under an agricultural law, which powers may be exercised notwithstanding that an officer of the Republic may be entitled pursuant to subsection (2), (4) or (5) to exercise similar power.~~

~~(9) The exercise or performance of any powers or duties by the Chief Officer, Fiscal Officer or officer of the Areas, deprives the relevant officer of the Republic of the right to exercise or perform the power or duty for as long as the Chief Officer, Fiscal Officer or officer of the Areas, exercises or performs it.~~

~~(10) The authority given to an officer of the Republic under subsection (2), (4) or (5) to exercise any power or to perform any duty is in all cases subject to the condition that the power may not be exercised or the duty performed if to do so it would be necessary for the officer of the Republic to enter—~~

- ~~(a) any land occupied by the Crown in any capacity; or~~
- ~~(b) any land to which access is controlled or restricted by the Crown in any capacity;~~

~~—or~~

- ~~(c) any premises situated within any land such as is referred to in paragraph (b) above;~~

~~unless he has the written authority of the Administrator to enter the land or premises concerned.~~

5.—(1) A function conferred on an officer of the Republic under an agricultural law is—

- (a) a conferred function for the purposes of the Conferral of Functions on the Republic Ordinance 2020 (“the Conferral Ordinance”)(a); and*
- (b) is exercisable by an officer of the Republic only if provided for by the Conferral Ordinance.*

(2) To the extent that section 5 of the Conferral Ordinance prevents a function referred to in subsection (1) from being exercised by an officer of the Republic, that function is exercisable by—

- (a) the Fiscal Officer, where the function relates to any form of inspection (however described) of any goods which are intended for import into or export from the Areas; or*
- (b) in all other cases, the Chief Officer.*

(3) Any body which, in the Republic, is created as a result of a provision of the kind referred to in section 4(1)(e) will be recognised in the Areas as having the same rights and duties as if that body had been established under the provisions of this Ordinance and will have the same powers and duties as those conferred or imposed upon that body in the Republic for the purpose of carrying out its objectives as specified in that provision in the Republic.

Effect of acts of officers of the Republic (b)

~~6. Any power exercised or any duty performed by an officer of the Republic acting pursuant to section 5(2), (4) or (5), and any act or thing whatsoever done or suffered in connection with the exercise of such a power or the performance of such a duty is of the same force and effect in all respects and for all purposes as if such power had been exercised, or such duty had been performed or such act or thing had been done by the Chief Officer acting pursuant to section 5(1) or by the Fiscal Officer acting pursuant to section 5(3).~~

---

(a) Ordinance 46/2020.

(b) Section 6 repealed by Ordinance 51/2020 – came into force on 01 January 2021

Protection of officers of the Republic

7. Any enactment of the Areas giving protection to officers of the Areas against civil or criminal liability in respect of acts done in the course of their duties, or in any way applying to such acts, will apply to officers of the Republic acting pursuant to section 5 ~~(2), (4) or (5)~~, (a) and to any acts of such officers while so acting, as if such officers were officers of the Areas and as if such acts were the acts of officers of the Areas.

Legal proceedings

8.—(1) A court of the Areas may take judicial notice of an agricultural law and any other Republican document of any description granted or otherwise made under an agricultural law.

(2) For the purposes of this section, the production of a copy of any part of a Republican enactment –

- (a) contained in a printed collection of enactments purporting to be printed and published by an authority of the Republic; or
- (b) contained in an issue of the Official Gazette of the Republic; or
- (c) purporting to be printed by the Government Printer of the Republic, by whatever name called, is conclusive evidence in Court and for all purposes whatsoever of the due and lawful making of such enactment.

(3) For the purposes of this section, a version of any part of an agricultural law in the English language –

- (a) purporting to be produced by an authority of the Republic;
- (b) certified as being accurate by an officer of the Administration considered by the Court to have been at the time of such certification a competent and adequate translator into the English language from the language in which the agricultural law was published in the Republic;
- (c) given or produced in the course of oral evidence of a person whom the Court considers to be a competent translator for the purpose;
- (d) stated orally in court or produced in writing by a Registrar or official court interpreter, may in any of those cases be held by the Court to be conclusive evidence for all purposes whatsoever that such version is the accurate English version of the agricultural law or part of the agricultural law in question.

(4) For the purposes of this section, the production of –

- (a) a relevant document, the accuracy of which is certified in writing by a senior officer of the Government Department of the Republic responsible for the relevant agricultural law under which the relevant document was made; or
- (b) an English translation of a relevant document, the accuracy of which is certified in writing by a translator of recognised competence, may be held by the Court to be conclusive evidence for all purposes of the contents of such document.

Repeal

9.—(1) The Ordinances listed in Schedule 2, any amendments to such Ordinances and any public instruments made under such Ordinances are repealed or, as the case may be, revoked.

(a) Deleted by Ordinance 51/2020 – came into force on 01 January 2021

(2) The provisions of any Ordinances and public instruments listed in Schedule 2 will continue to apply in respect of any licence or permit issued under such laws until the expiry of such licence or permit.
