9.—(1) The Fiscal Officer may by notice designate any place as a customs station.

(2) A customs station is a place under the supervisions of the Fiscal Officer where customs controls, examinations and searches may be carried out.

PART 3

Ports, Airports and Crossing Points

Customs ports

10.—(1) The Administrator may by order designate any area including territorial waters a customs port for customs and excise purposes.

(2) Designation as a customs port does not affect the use of the designated area which is for military purposes only.(a)

Approved wharves

11.—(1) The Fiscal Officer may approve as an approved wharf for such periods and subject to such conditions and restrictions as he may impose, any place in any customs port for—

- (a) the loading and unloading of goods; or
- (b) the embarkation and disembarkation of passengers and crew.

(2) The Fiscal Officer may revoke or vary an approval given under subsection (1).

Customs airports

12.—(1) The Administrator may by order designate any area as a customs airport for customs and excise purposes.

(2) Designation as a customs airport does not affect the use of the designated area which is for military purposes only.(b)

Examination stations

13.—(1) The Fiscal Officer may approve as an examination station for such periods and subject to such conditions and restrictions as he may impose any place at a customs airport for—

- (a) the loading and unloading of goods; or
- (b) the embarkation and disembarkation of passengers and crew.

(2) The Fiscal Officer may at any time revoke or vary any approval given under subsection (1).

Restrictions on ships and aircraft

14.—(1) This section does not apply where—

(a) Subsection (2) inserted by Ordinance 5/2010 – came into force on 10 March 2010

(b) Subsection (2) inserted by Ordinance 5/2010 – came into force on 10 March 2010

- (a) a ship or aircraft is travelling or intended to travel only between places in the Areas or the Areas and the territory of the Republic (in either direction) and in the territorial waters of the Areas or the Republic; and
 - (b) the ship or aircraft is not carrying goods which were loaded or passengers who embarked outside the Areas or the territory of the Republic.
- (2) The master of a ship shall not cause or allow the ship to arrive at or leave from a place which is not a customs port.
- (3) The commander of an aircraft shall not cause or allow the aircraft to arrive at or leave from a place which is not a customs airport.
- (4) No person may load or unload goods from a ship or an aircraft or embark or disembark at a place which has not been approved by the Fiscal Officer under section 11 or 13.
- (5) The master of a ship or commander of an aircraft must not permit any person to act in breach of subsection (4).

Crossing points

15. The Administrator may by order designate any place at or near the line as a crossing point for the purposes of the Protocol and for customs and excise purposes.

PART 4

Sea and Air Transport

Application of Part 4

16. This Part does not apply where—
- (a) a ship or aircraft is travelling or intended to travel only between places in the Areas or the Areas and the territory of the Republic (in either direction) or in the territorial waters of the Areas or the Republic; and
 - (b) the ship or aircraft is not carrying goods which were loaded or passengers who embarked outside the Areas or the territory of the Republic.

Lodging of cargo manifest on arrival of ship

~~17.—(1) The master of a ship arriving at a port or mooring within territorial waters must lodge with the Fiscal Officer a cargo manifest within 24 hours from the ship's arrival. (a)~~

17.—(1) On arrival of a ship at a customs port or mooring within territorial waters, the following must be lodged—

- (a) a cargo manifest; and*
 - (b) any other documents prescribed by the Fiscal Officer by notice in the Gazette.*
- (2) Subsection (1) applies even if the ship is in ballast and even if the arrival or mooring was due to force majeure.
- (3) No goods shall be unloaded before a cargo manifest is lodged except—
- (a) with the consent of the Fiscal Officer; and
 - (b) at a place approved by the Fiscal Officer.
- ~~(4) The Fiscal Officer may prescribe in relation to the cargo manifest (which may be in electronic form)—~~
- ~~(a) requirements as to its form; and~~

(a) Subsection (1) repealed and replaced by Ordinance 5/2010 – came into force on 10 March 2010

(b) ~~the procedures for lodging it.~~(a)

(4) The Fiscal Officer may prescribe by notice in the Gazette in relation to the cargo manifest and any other documents required to be produced in accordance with subsection (1)—

(a) requirements as to form; and

(b) the procedures for lodging them.

(5) The Fiscal Officer may require the production of any document relating to the goods listed on the cargo manifest.

(6) The master of a ship is not obliged to comply with this section when the ship departs without free pratique within 24 hours from the ship's arrival.(b)

(7) The Fiscal Officer may allow the cargo manifest for a cargo ship, passenger ship or car ferry, lodged under subsection (1), to list only the goods destined for the port of arrival.

(8) Each vehicle of international transport on board a ship carrying goods covered under a title of international transit must be included in the cargo manifest separately for each vehicle.

Lodging a cargo manifest before clearance outward

18.—(1) The Fiscal Officer may require that the master of a ship, prior to the clearance outwards from the first port of arrival, lodge a cargo manifest in accordance with section 17.

(2) The Fiscal Officer may make a requirement under subsection (1) even if the ship is in ballast.

(3) The master of a ship after its arrival at a second port (including where its first port of arrival was in the territory of Republic) shall lodge with the Fiscal Officer a cargo manifest in accordance with section 17.

Notice of arrival

19. The shipping agent or other representative of the operator of a ship shall notify the Fiscal Officer at least 12 hours in advance of the expected arrival of a ship and supply additional information as required.

Force majeure

20. If a ship is moored due to force majeure and its repair is required, the goods on board may be unloaded with the consent of the Fiscal Officer and stored in places approved by the Fiscal Officer.

Lodging a cargo manifest of an aircraft

21.—(1) The commander of an aircraft must lodge with the Fiscal Officer a cargo manifest within 24 hours of the arrival or 3 hours before the departure of the aircraft whichever is the sooner.

(2) The provisions of section 17(3), (4) and (5) shall apply in relation to an aircraft.

Clearance outward of ships and aircraft

22.—(1) Save as permitted by the Fiscal Officer, no ship or aircraft shall depart from any customs port or customs airport from which it commences, or at which it stops during, a voyage or flight to an eventual destination outside the Areas or the territory of the Republic until clearance of the ship or aircraft for that departure has been obtained from an officer.

(a) Subsection (4) repealed and replaced by Ordinance 5/2010 – came into force on 10 March 2010

(b) Text inserted by Ordinance 5/2010 – came into force on 10 March 2010

(2) No goods shall be loaded on a ship or aircraft for exportation or for use as stores without the consent of the Fiscal Officer, unless an application for clearance outwards of the ship or aircraft has been lodged in accordance with subsection (3).

(3) The Fiscal Officer may by notice prescribe—

- (a) the procedure for obtaining clearance outwards of a ship or an aircraft;
- (b) the documents to be produced and the information to be furnished by any person applying for such clearance.

(4) Where clearance is sought under this section for any ship which is in ballast or has on board no goods other than stores, the baggage of passengers carried in that ship, or empty returned containers upon which no freight or profit is earned, the officer in granting clearance shall, on the application of the master, clear the ship as in ballast.

Stores

23.—(1) Subject to applicable Community Law and provisions relating to excise duties and value added tax the Fiscal officer may permit goods to be shipped as ships stores or aircraft stores without payment of duties of taxes subject to such conditions as he may impose.

(2) The Fiscal Officer may direct—

- (a) the quantity and type of goods which may be carried as stores in any ship or aircraft;
- (b) the type of ship in which goods may be carried as stores;
- (c) the method by which the goods may be taken to a ship for use as stores;
- (d) the treatment of surplus stores.

Unloading at approved place

24.—(1) Goods subject to customs procedures or liable to duty shall not be unloaded from any means of transport at a place not approved by the Fiscal Officer.

(2) Any goods which are unloaded in breach of subsection (1) are liable to forfeiture.

PART 5

Officers' Powers

Access to customs ports and airports and the keeping of records

25.—(1) The person in charge of a customs port or a customs airport shall allow officers access to it in order to inspect the premises and any goods which are there.

(2) The person in charge of a customs port or customs airport shall—

- (a) keep a record, in such form and manner as the Fiscal Officer may approve, of all ships and aircraft arriving at or departing from the customs port or customs airport;
- (b) retain for such period as the Fiscal Officer may approve and produce at the request of the Fiscal Officer—
 - (i) a list of ships and aircraft arriving at or departing from the customs port or customs airport;
 - (ii) all other documents which relate to the movement of ships or aircraft; and
- (c) allow the Fiscal Officer to take up and make copies of any such record, list or document.

Access to approved wharves etc.

26. An officer shall at all times have access to any approved wharf, examination station or customs station in order to inspect it and examine any goods which are there.

Powers in relation to ships, aircraft and vehicles

27.—(1) At any time while a ship is within the limits of a customs port or within territorial waters or an aircraft is at a customs airport, an officer may board the ship or aircraft in order to inspect it and examine any goods which it carries.

(2) The master of a ship or the commander of an aircraft must allow officers at any time to board the ship or aircraft in order to inspect it and any goods in it and any documents relating to the ship or aircraft or goods or persons carried in it.

(3) The Fiscal Officer may station officers and authorised persons in any ship while it is within the limits of a customs port.

(4) In the circumstances of subsection (3) the master of the ship shall provide reasonable accommodation for the officers and authorised persons and ensure safe means of access for such persons to and from the ship.

(5) Without prejudice to subsections (1), (2) and (3) an officer shall have access to every part of any ship, aircraft and vehicle at a customs port, customs airport and crossing point and may—

- (a) mark any goods;
- (b) lock up, seal or otherwise secure any goods or container in which goods are found; and
- (c) for the purposes of this section use such force as is reasonably necessary to break open any door, window or container and remove any impediment or obstruction whatsoever.

(6) If any ship or aircraft departs from any place carrying on board an officer without the consent of that officer, the master of the ship or the commander of the aircraft (as the case may be) commits an offence and is liable ~~to imprisonment for 2 years or a fine of €3,417 or to both~~(a) on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years or to a fine not exceeding €3,417 or to both.(b)

Power to prohibit persons

28. The Fiscal Officer may prohibit any person from boarding a ship in a customs port who appears to him to have no business on the ship.

Power to detain ship or aircraft before clearance

29. The Fiscal Officer may detain a ship or aircraft which appears to him to be likely to depart for a destination outside the Areas or the territory of the Republic before customs clearance has been given.

Withdrawal of clearance

30.—(1) Where it appears necessary to do so the Fiscal Officer may at any time while a ship is within the limits of a customs port or an aircraft is at a customs airport withdraw clearance previously given.

(2) Withdrawal of clearance is effective only when communicated either orally or in writing to the master of a ship or commander of an aircraft and if in writing may be served by—

- (a) delivering it to him personally;
- (b) leaving it at his last known address; or
- (c) leaving it on board the ship or aircraft with the person appearing to be in charge or command of it.

(a) Subsection (6) inserted by Ordinance 5/2010 – came into force on 10 March 2010

(b) Text deleted and new text inserted by Ordinance 22/2012 – came into force on 17 September 2012

Direction to upload

31. Where a cargo manifest has not been lodged in accordance with section 17 or unloading of goods is delayed, the Fiscal Officer may direct, at the risk and expense of the carrier, that the goods be unloaded from the ship, aircraft or other means of transport at a place approved by him.

PART 6

Supervision and Storage of Goods

Approval of temporary storage facilities

32.—(1) The Fiscal Officer may approve at any customs port, customs airport or other place temporary storage facilities for the storage of goods until they are placed under a customs-approved treatment or use.

(2) Such approval may be made on such conditions and subject to such requirements as the Fiscal Officer sees fit to impose including as to procedures, records, storage, security and guarantees.

(3) The Fiscal Officer may at any time revoke or vary an approval given under subsection (1).

(4) The Fiscal Officer may supervise and control any place designated as a temporary storage facility.

(5) The operation of a temporary storage facility shall be subject to such conditions as the Fiscal Officer may impose.

(6) The Administrator may by order prescribe the fees to be charged for services supplied at storage facilities and different provision may be made for different cases.

Storage in temporary storage facilities

33.—(1) Goods imported into the Areas may only be placed in temporary storage facilities if permitted by the Fiscal Officer.

(2) In the circumstances of subsection (4) a statement signed by or on behalf of the carrier and presented for signature to an officer shall be prepared.

(3) The statement referred to in subsection (2) shall—

(a) be in a form permitted by the Fiscal Officer;

(b) (if applicable) include details of the description, the weight, quantity, content and condition of the goods and their packaging and the measures being undertaken.

(4) The circumstances referred to in subsection (2), not arising on account of natural losses or deterioration, are that in relation to goods coming into the Areas there are—

(a) missing goods or other deficiencies;

(b) signs of interference with parcels, vessels, cartons or other packaging;

(c) signs of pilferage or leakage.

(5) If the Fiscal Officer confirms that the circumstances of subsection (4) apply he may charge the duty on any goods which are missing.

Controls over goods in temporary storage facilities

34.—(1) The Fiscal Officer may permit the temporary storage of imported goods or goods moving under the transit procedure in temporary storage facilities approved under section 32(1).

(2) Goods unloaded into temporary storage facilities on the basis of the cargo manifest are subject to customs supervision and controls.

(3) Goods in temporary storage facilities may—

- (a) only be moved with the consent of the Fiscal Officer;
- (b) be subject only to such forms of handling as are designed to ensure their preservation in an unaltered state without modifying their appearance or technical characteristics;
- (c) be examined and have samples taken by the Fiscal Officer, in order that they may be assigned a customs-approved treatment or use.

(4) In accordance with subsection (2) an officer may enter any temporary storage facilities to carry out inspections and investigations and examine goods and documents.

(5) An officer may for control purposes seal or lock any temporary storage facility or part of it or in any other manner secure the goods in it and such seal, lock or other security may remain in place until the exercise of controls is completed, any duty due is paid and satisfactory explanations for any deficiencies are given.

(6) The operator of a private temporary storage facility (“the operator”) is liable for any duty due on the goods and the Administration is not liable for any damage, deterioration or destruction of goods stored.

(7) Goods placed under a customs warehousing procedure or for exportation must not be placed in temporary storage facilities.

(8) The operator must within 12 hours of a delivery of goods notify the Fiscal Officer in writing of any discrepancy between the goods listed on the cargo manifest and those delivered.

(9) Without prejudice to any liability for any offence, the operator must pay the duty due on goods in relation to any deficiencies where the discrepancy had not been notified under subsection (8).

(10) The operator is liable to pay the duty and tax in respect of any deficiencies assessed by the Fiscal Officer in relation to goods stored in temporary storage facilities.

Time limits for storage

35.—(1) The storage of goods in temporary storage facilities is subject to the following time limits—

- (a) for goods carried by sea, 45 days from the date on which the cargo manifest is lodged;
- (b) for goods carried by air, 20 days from the date on which the cargo manifest is lodged.

(2) The Fiscal Officer may extend or reduce the time limits for the storage of goods in a particular case.

(3) Goods presented to customs and stored in temporary storage facilities must, within the time limits in subsection (1), be assigned a customs-approved treatment or use which may include—

- (a) placing under a customs procedure;
- (b) entry into a free zone or a free warehouse;
- (c) exportation from the customs territory;
- (d) destruction with the consent of the Fiscal Officer and on terms and conditions laid down by him;
- (e) abandonment to the Administration with the Fiscal Officer’s consent in accordance with section 54.

(4) Where a customs-approved treatment or use has not been assigned to goods within the above time limits the provisions relating to uncleared goods apply.

PART 7

Duties, Taxes and Other Charges

Charging of duties, taxes and other charges

36.—(1) The assessment, levying, payment and collection of customs duties in respect of goods for the armed forces of the United Kingdom, the United Kingdom authorities, authorised service organisations, contractors, sutlers, members of a force or civilian component and their dependants, governed by the provisions of the Treaty of Establishment shall be subject to that Treaty applied in accordance with the Protocol.

(2) Any goods, equipment, materials and accessories that are imported in accordance with subsection (1), without the payment of customs duty, by the forces of the United Kingdom, by authorised service organisations or by the United Kingdom authorities and which are subsequently disposed of by them, are not chargeable with customs duty if the goods had originated from a member State, and in any other case, except for motor vehicles within subsection (3), are chargeable with customs duty at a rate of 5% of their dutiable value which shall be taken to be their sale price.

(3) Motor vehicles, which are disposed of otherwise than by being dismantled or re-exported, are chargeable by reference to their dutiable value, which shall be taken to be the price at which they are sold, and at the rate in force at the time of their disposal.

(4) The charges to customs duty arising under subsections (2) and (3) are without prejudice to any liability for excise duty, tax or other charges.

(5) Any word or expression used in this section which is defined or used in the Treaty of Establishment shall have the same meaning for the purposes of this section as it has for the purposes of that Treaty.

Goods delivered without payment of duty

37.—(1) If by virtue of any provision or under any practice (including a practice arising from the Treaty of Establishment) by which goods not in free circulation and chargeable with a duty of customs or tax—

- (a) are allowed to be delivered in the Areas without payment of that duty or tax (whether or not the duty or tax was chargeable in the Republic or the Areas) on condition that they—
 - (i) shall be subject to a restriction on their use or sale;
 - (ii) shall be re-exported;
 - (iii) shall be subjected to a procedure whether or not any such procedure should take place in the Republic or the Areas; or
 - (iv) shall be subject to any other appropriate condition; and
- (b) the amount of customs duty or tax due on the goods depended on their being imported on such a condition; and
- (c) the condition is breached,

then, unless the Fiscal Officer had permitted the breach or varied the condition, any duty chargeable on the goods shall fall to be paid as if the goods had been imported into the Areas at the time of the breach.

(2) Subsection (1) shall apply whether the goods were imported into the Republic or directly into the Areas and “condition” means a condition imposed by an official of the Republic or the Fiscal Officer.

(3) Subsection (1) shall apply whether or not any undertaking or security has been given against breach of the condition or payment of the duty or tax and the forfeiture of any goods under this section shall not affect the liability of any person who has given such security or undertaking.

(4) In the case of a breach of a condition referred to in subsection (1) the goods in relation to which the condition was imposed shall be liable to forfeiture.

PART 8

Customs Debts

Customs debts

38. “Customs debt” means the obligation on a person to pay the amount of the import duties (customs debt on importation) or export duties (customs debt on exportation), which apply to specific goods under the Community provisions in force.

Communication of customs debt

39. A customs debt which arises out of an act which was liable to give rise to criminal liability may be communicated to the debtor after the period of 3 years provided for in the Code but not after 12 years from the date on which the customs debt was incurred.

Persons supplying information liable to customs debts

40. Where a customs declaration for one of the following procedures—

- (a) the release for free circulation of goods liable to import duties; or
- (b) the placing of such goods under temporary importation procedure with partial relief from import duties.

is drawn up on the basis of information which leads to the whole or part of the amount legally owed not being collected, a person (other than declarant) who provided any information which he knew, or ought reasonably to have known, was false shall be jointly and severally liable for the customs debt along with the declarant.

Regulations

41. The Administrator may by regulations make further provision about the time limits, the manner of payment and suspension of a customs debt and the guarantees required under the Code.

PART 9

Other Customs Debt (a)

Other ~~customs~~ debt

42. “Other ~~customs~~ debt” means the obligation of a person to pay any duty, tax or any other amounts chargeable on the importation of goods other than ‘customs debt’ as defined in section 38.

Incurrence of other ~~customs~~ debt

43. Other ~~customs~~ debt is incurred—

- (a) at the time of acceptance of a customs declaration;
- (b) upon the unlawful introduction into the customs territory of goods;

(a) The word “Customs” deleted in the expression “other customs debt” in section 42 to 47 and Parts 9 and 10 by Ordinance 5/2010 – came into force on 10 March 2010

- (c) upon the unlawful removal of goods chargeable with customs duty, excise duty, tax or other charges from customs supervision;
- (d) upon the non-fulfilment of an obligation or non-compliance with a condition imposed or arising from the placing of goods under a customs procedure or customs-approved treatment or use.

PART 10

Provisions in Relation to Customs Debt and Other Customs Debt

Guarantees

44. In order to secure a customs debt or other ~~customs~~ debt the Fiscal Officer may require the declarant to provide a guarantee.

Notification of assessment of other ~~customs~~ debt

45. When an amount has been assessed and notified to a person as other ~~customs~~ debt the amount of the assessment is due from that person and may be recovered accordingly, unless the assessment is withdrawn or the amount communicated is reduced.

Notification to personal representatives etc.

46. A notification of customs debt or other ~~customs~~ debt to a personal representative, administrator, receiver, liquidator or any other person who acts in any other similar capacity shall be treated as delivered to the person in relation to whom that person acts.

Recovery of amounts not legally due

47.—(1) If any person had, before or after the enactment of this Ordinance, paid an amount as other ~~customs~~ debt which was not legally due then upon the application of that person the Fiscal Officer shall repay that amount.

(2) The Fiscal Officer may refuse an application under subsection (1), if the repayment of that amount would result in an unjustifiable enrichment of the person who has made the application.

(3) No application may be made under subsection (1) after a period of 3 years from the date the amount was paid.

(4) An application under subsection (1) shall be made in such form and manner and shall be supported by such documentary evidence as the Fiscal Officer may require.

Financial penalty

48.—(1) A financial penalty of 10% of the amount assessed may be imposed by the Fiscal Officer upon a declarant in respect of any customs duty that is assessed where the amount payable was not established at an earlier time because of a default.

(2) A “default” referred to in subsection (1) includes a failure to make a proper declaration or to produce proper documents.

Interest

49.—(1) A person who is liable to pay a financial penalty under section 48(1) is also liable to pay interest at the rate of 9% per annum on the amount payable from the date it became due until it has been paid.

(2) The “amount payable” under subsection (1) shall include the financial penalty and the customs duty due.

PART 11

Customs Procedures

Customs declaration

50.—(1) The owner of the goods or his representative shall, after the presentation of goods to customs, submit a customs declaration within the time limits referred to in section 35(1), in order for the goods to be assigned to a customs procedure or to a customs-approved treatment or use.

(2) The Fiscal Officer may designate particular customs stations for the clearance of particular goods.

Regulations for simplified procedures

51. The Administrator may by regulations specify the conditions for the use of simplified procedures and for circumstances where a customs declaration is not required.

Regulations for custom procedures

52.—(1) The Administrator may by regulations provide for—

- (a) the operation of any customs arrangements;
- (b) additional procedures relating to the application of conditions for placing goods under a customs procedure or a customs-approved treatment or use;
- (c) additional procedures and requirements in relation to the customs declaration, the examination and sampling of goods, or the format of receipts and other documents;
- (d) the conditions for the operation of customs warehouses; and
- (e) licences, licence fees and annual operation fees for customs warehouses.

Application of section 34 to warehousing

53. To the extent that there is no contrary Community provision and subject to necessary modifications the provisions of section 34(3), (4), (5), (6), (8) and (9) shall apply to warehousing arrangements.

Abandonment, destruction and sale of goods

54.—(1) The Fiscal Officer prior to the release of goods, at the written request of the declarant and on payment in advance of all expenses and charges due in relation to the goods, may approve—

- (a) the abandonment of goods to the Administration;
- (b) the destruction of goods.

(2) The costs arising from the abandonment or destruction of goods shall be borne entirely by the declarant.

(3) The Fiscal Officer may direct the procedures to be followed for a destruction of goods.

(4) On the customs declaration, the nature and quantity of the waste and scrap resulting from a destruction shall be recorded.

(5) Waste and scrap resulting from a destruction may be released for free circulation if all duty and tax is paid.

(6) Subject to subsection (5), the abandonment to the Administration or the destruction of goods under the control of the Fiscal Officer shall relieve the declarant from the obligation to pay any duty and tax.

PART 12

Passengers' Baggage

Passengers' baggage

55.—(1) Any person entering the Areas other than from the territory of a member State shall, at such place and time and in such manner as the Fiscal Officer may direct, present his baggage for examination and declare any thing contained in his baggage or carried with him which—

- (a) he has obtained outside the customs territory of the Community; or
- (b) being dutiable or chargeable goods, he has obtained within the customs territory without payment of duty or tax or in respect of which duty or tax has been refunded, and in respect of which he is not entitled to exemption from or refund of duty or tax under any legal provision including any applying by virtue of the Treaty of Establishment.

(2) Where charges due in relation to any thing referred to in subsection (1) are not paid it shall be delivered to a customs office as soon as possible.

(3) Any thing stored which is not cleared within 45 days from the date of its delivery to the customs office in accordance with subsection (2) may upon examination by an officer or authorised person be considered as uncleared.

(4) The Fiscal Officer may, if there are good reasons to do so, extend the time limit in subsection (3) by up to 3 months.

(5) Passengers' baggage may be moved under any applicable transit procedure arrangements.

(6) A person who fails to comply with subsection (1) commits an offence and on conviction is liable to a fine in an amount not exceeding ~~£200~~ €341(a) or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 1 year or to both penalties.

Questions of persons entering or leaving the Areas

56. Any person entering or leaving the Areas other than a person entering from or leaving to enter the territory of the Republic—

- (a) shall answer such questions as an officer may put to him in respect of his baggage and any thing contained in it or carried with him and must, if required by an officer, produce that baggage and any such thing for examination at a customs station;(b)
- (b) shall produce such evidence as the Fiscal Officer may require to support any answers given under paragraph (a).

PART 13

Explosives and Postal Goods

Explosives etc.

57.—(1) A container or parcel which is imported containing inflammable or explosive material or other substance which poses a risk to health or to the environment must bear a discernible and legible inscription about its content and potential to cause harm.

(2) Every carrier, shipping agent or airline company must before it is unloaded, make a separate declaration to the Fiscal Officer concerning the importation of any container or parcel referred to in subsection (1).

(a) Amended by Ordinance 22/2012 – came into force on 17 September 2012
(b) Text inserted by Ordinance 5/2010 – came into force on 10 March 2010

Regulations for postal goods (a)

~~58. The Administrator may by regulations provide for customs procedures in relation to goods or any other things which are imported or exported by post and in particular may make provision as to offences.~~

58. The Administrator may make regulations to provide for customs procedures in relation to goods or any other things which are imported or exported by post and in particular may make provision as to offences.

PART 14 Uncleared Goods

Uncleared goods

59.—(1) Where goods are carried—

- (a) by sea and are not released within 45 days from the date on which the cargo manifest was lodged; or
- (b) by air and are not released within 20 days from the date on which the cargo manifest was lodged, subject to any extension of time granted by the Fiscal Officer, the goods are treated as uncleared and, subject to subsection (5), must be transferred to the Administration's custody.

(2) The Fiscal Officer may sell goods in accordance with section 63 or approve their destruction under section 60 on a date 21 days after they are treated as uncleared under subsection (1).

(3) The transportation, destruction and other costs in relation to goods, scrap and waste which are dangerous must be borne by the importer and recovered as a debt due to the Administration.

(4) If the goods are perishable or their safe-keeping is difficult, the Fiscal Officer may reduce the time limits provided for by this section.

(5) At the importer's risk and expense, the Fiscal Officer may allow goods in the Administration's custody to be stored in a place approved by the Fiscal Officer.

Destruction of uncleared goods

60.—(1) The Fiscal Officer may approve the destruction of uncleared goods which are—

- (a) of negligible value;
- (b) dangerous or not fit for use;
- (c) foodstuffs certified as unfit for human consumption by an officer of a competent authority.

(2) Goods may be destroyed immediately in the cases of subsection (1) (b) and (c) and after 21 days from the date that they were treated as uncleared in the case of subsection (1) (a).

(3) Goods shall be destroyed under this section in the presence of an officer and in accordance with procedures laid down by the Fiscal Officer.

(4) The importer of goods within subsection (1) is liable for the costs arising under subsections (2) and (3) which may be recovered as a debt due to the Administration.

(a) Repealed and replaced by Ordinance 49/2020 – came into force on 01 January 2021

Fees for warehousing

61. The Administrator may by order set fees for warehousing of goods in the custody of the Administration and chargeable to the importer of the goods.

Costs for special handling

62. The extra costs of warehousing combustible or inflammable goods or other goods which require special handling as directed by the Fiscal Officer may be charged to the importer of the goods.

Sales at auction

63.—(1) Goods that are treated as uncleared and transferred to the Administration's custody may be sold by public auction on such terms and conditions and at such place as the Fiscal Officer may direct.

(2) If a buyer of goods sold at a public auction has not paid the relevant amount within 8 days from the date that the auction took place, the sale may be annulled by the Fiscal Officer and the goods may be sold again by auction under this section or otherwise dealt with in accordance with this Ordinance.

(3) The Fiscal Officer may agree to withdraw goods from public auction if, at any time before the commencement of the auction, the owner of the goods or his representative—

- (a) applies to the Fiscal Officer in writing to that effect; and
- (b) deposits a sum of money to cover any duty and tax and storage, removal, auction and any other charges arising.

(4) In the circumstances of subsection (3) the procedures relating to a customs-approved treatment or use shall be applied.

Proceeds of sale

64.—(1) Any proceeds of a sale of goods taking place under section 63 shall be paid out in the following order—

- (a) customs duty, excise duty and tax due on the goods;
- (b) charges arising from the sale including the expenses of any public auction;
- (c) freight and storage charges.

(2) Any amount remaining after the application of subsection (1) shall be paid to—

- (a) the person who immediately before the sale was the owner of the goods and who applies to be paid that amount to the Fiscal Officer within 6 months of the date the auction took place; and in default,
- (b) the Administration.

Unsold goods

65. Where under this Ordinance uncleared goods are twice offered for sale by public auction but are not sold then the goods shall be treated as abandoned and become the property of the Administration.

PART 15

Customs Reliefs and Representation

Customs reliefs

66.—(1) The Administrator may by regulations provide for the refund of or partial or total relief from customs duty chargeable on any goods on their importation for certain persons, international or other organisations or bodies and subject to such conditions as may be specified.

(2) Such regulations may provide for the valuation of goods which have been entered for free circulation with relief which are subsequently assigned a different custom-approved treatment or use or customs procedure.

Customs representation

67.—(1) Any person may appoint a representative to act on his behalf in his dealings with the Fiscal Officer in relation to the requirements of customs ~~and exercise and~~ legislation or (a) associated legislation.

(2) Such an appointment shall be made in writing in such form and manner as the Fiscal Officer may direct.

(3) A representative submitting a customs declaration under customs legislation must be a customs agent approved under subsection (4).

(4) The Fiscal Officer may approve as a customs agent—

- (a) any person in accordance with ~~article 5~~ article 18 (b) of the Code; or
- (b) a person exclusively employed in the service of the person whom he represents and duly authorised in writing by his employer.

(5) The Administrator may make regulations in relation to customs agents and in particular relating to—

- (a) registration, qualifications, powers, disciplinary control, duties and liabilities and the liabilities of any person on whose behalf a customs agent acts;
- (b) licensing procedures and the conditions which may be attached; and
- (c) the fees payable in respect of any licence, application or other document.

(6) The Fiscal Officer may in special circumstances exempt any person or category of persons from any requirement of regulations made under subsection (5).

PART 16

General Powers

Power of entry to places subject to customs supervision

68.—(1) An officer may at any reasonable time enter any place subject to customs supervision to examine the goods kept there and any other documents relating to the goods.

(2) A place subject to customs supervision includes—

- (a) a customs warehouse or temporary storage facility;
- (b) a place where are stored goods subject to customs supervision by virtue of ~~article 37~~ article 134 (c) of the Code; and

(a) Text deleted and new text inserted by Ordinance 5/2010 – came into force on 10 March 2010
(b) Amended by Ordinance 49/2021 – came into force on 01 January 2021
(c) Amended by Ordinance 49/2020 – came into force on 01 January 2021

- (c) a place, other than a dwelling house, where are stored goods which are held for military or commercial purposes and chargeable with duty or tax which has not been paid.

Examination of imported goods and goods to be exported

69.—(1) An officer may—

- (a) examine and take account of any goods which have been imported or are to be exported;
- (b) examine, remove and take copies of any documents which relate to any goods referred to in subsection (a);
- (c) require anyone whom he believes may hold information about such goods to supply him with such information.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1)(a), an officer may open or unpack any container or require any container to be opened or unpacked and search it or any thing in it.(a)

Production of information

70.—(1) An officer may require any person whom he believes may hold information in relation to goods which—

- (a) have entered or left or are intended to enter or leave the Areas; or
- (b) have been in his possession and were delivered without payment of duty or tax, whether or not subject to any condition, to produce such information at a place and within a period of time which the officer may reasonably specify.

(2) The power under subsection (1) may be exercised without prejudice to any lien, attachment or other legal right which may exist in relation to the information in question.

Entry and search

71.—(1) Where an officer has reasonable grounds to suspect that in any premises, building or other place, other than a dwelling house, an offence under customs ~~or associated~~ (b) legislation is being committed or has been or is about to be committed or that evidence of the commission of such an offence will be found, an officer may enter the premises and search it.

(2) Without prejudice to subsection (1) if a judge is satisfied by a statement by an officer made under oath that there are reasonable grounds to suspect that in any premises, building, dwelling house or other place an offence under customs legislation is being, has been or is about to be committed or that evidence of an offence under customs legislation or associated legislation (c) will be found, he may by warrant authorise that officer and any person accompanying the officer to enter and search.

Search for goods liable to forfeiture etc.

72.—(1) Without prejudice to any other power under this Ordinance, where an officer has reasonable grounds to suspect that goods liable to forfeiture under customs legislation or documents or any other things which relate to the commission of an offence under customs legislation are kept or concealed in any premises, building or other place, an officer may—

- (a) enter the premises, building or other place, other than a dwelling house, at any time; and
- (b) examine and search for goods, documents and any other thing.

(2) Without prejudice to subsection (1) if a judge is satisfied by a statement by an officer made under oath that there are reasonable grounds to suspect that in any premises, building, dwelling house or other place goods liable to forfeiture under customs legislation or documents or other things which relate to the commission of an offence under ~~customs or associated legislation~~ customs legislation or associated legislation(a) are kept or concealed, he may by warrant authorise that officer and any person accompanying the officer to enter and search.

Stop and search of vehicle and ships

73. An officer may stop and search any vehicle or other means of transport or ship which he has reasonable grounds to suspect is carrying—

- (a) goods chargeable with any duty or tax which has not been paid or secured;
- (b) goods which are being unlawfully removed from one place to another;
- (c) any thing liable to forfeiture under ~~this Ordinance~~ customs legislation(b); or
- (d) any thing which there are reasonable grounds to suspect is being, has been or is intended to be used for the commission of an offence under ~~this Ordinance~~ customs legislation.(c)

Search of persons

74.—(1) Where an officer has reasonable grounds to suspect that any person ~~to whom this section applies by virtue of section 75(d)~~ (referred to in this section as “the suspect”) is carrying any article—

- (a) which is chargeable with any duty or tax which has not been paid or secured; or
- (b) with respect to the importation or exportation of which a prohibition or restriction is for the time being in force under or by virtue of any enactment, the officer may exercise the powers conferred by subsection (2) below and, if the suspect is not under arrest, may detain him for so long as may be necessary for the exercise of those powers and (where applicable) the exercise of the rights conferred by subsection (3) below.

~~(2) The officer may require the suspect—~~

- ~~(a) to permit such a search of any article which he has with him; and~~
- ~~(b) subject to subsection (3) below, to submit to such searches of his person, whether rub-down, strip or intimate,~~

~~as the officer may consider necessary or expedient, but no such requirement may be imposed under paragraph (b) above without the officer informing the suspect of the effect of— subsection (3). (e)~~

~~(3) If the suspect is required to submit to a search of his person, he may require to be taken as soon as practicable—~~

- ~~(a) except in the case of a rub-down search, before a judge or a superior of the officer concerned; and~~
- ~~(b) in the expected case, before such a superior;~~

~~and the judge or superior shall consider the grounds for suspicion and direct accordingly whether the suspect is to submit to the search.~~

~~(4) A rub-down or strip search shall not be carried out except by a person of the same sex as the suspect and an intimate search shall not be carried out except by a suitably qualified person.~~

~~(2) The officer may require the suspect—~~

(a) Text deleted and new text inserted by Ordinance 5/2010 – came into force on 10 March 2010
(b) Text deleted and new text inserted by Ordinance 5/2010 – came into force on 10 March 2010

(d) Text deleted by Ordinance 33/2013 – came into force on 01 November 2013
(e) Subsections (2) to (4) repealed and replaced by Ordinance 7/2016 – came into force on 1 May 2016

- (a) to permit a search of any article which is with the suspect as the officer considers necessary or expedient; and
 - (b) subject to the following provisions of this section, to submit to such searches of the suspect's person as the officer considers necessary or expedient.
- (3) No requirement may be imposed under subsection (2)(b) without the officer first informing the suspect of the effect of subsections (4) and (5).
- (4) If the suspect is required to submit to a search of his person, the suspect may require to be taken as soon as practicable before a superior of the officer concerned.
- (5) In the cases referred to in subsection (4), the superior shall consider the grounds for suspicion and direct accordingly whether the suspect must submit to the search.
- (6) A rub-down or strip search shall not be carried out except by a person of the same sex as the suspect.
- (7) This section does not authorise any person to carry out an intimate search (but see section 81(5)(c) for power to carry out an intimate search of an arrested person).

Application and definitions of section 74

75.—(1) Section 74 applies to the following persons, namely—

- (a) any person who is on board or has landed from any ship or aircraft;

(a) Section 75(1) repealed by Ordinance 33/2013 – came into force on 01 November 2013
 (b) Definition repealed and replaced by Ordinance 7/2016 – came into force on 01 May 2016
 (c) Ordinance 10/1964
 (d) Ordinance 20/1964
 (e) Definition repealed by Ordinance 7/2016 – came into force on 01 May 2016

Removal and copying of documents

76. An officer or other person with power to examine documents—

- (a) may remove or take copies of any document;
- (b) may retain for a reasonable period of time any document removed;
- (c) on request, must issue a receipt for any document retained.

Use of force

77. An officer or other person having the power under this Ordinance to enter any building, premises or other place may use such force as is reasonably necessary for the purposes of that entry and for exercising any power he has of search, seizure, detention or removal and for those purposes he may break open any door, window or container and remove any other impediment or obstruction whatsoever.

Powers in relation to search

78. An officer or other person who has the power to carry out any search under this Ordinance—

- (a) may detain or remove any goods, documents or other thing which may be used as evidence and detain or seize any thing which is liable for forfeiture; and
- (b) subject to the application of the procedures in ~~section 74 (3) and (4)~~ section 74(3) to (7)(a) may search any person found on the premises whom he reasonably believes is in possession of any thing referred to in subsection (a);
- (c) may supply within a reasonable time after a request to that effect a copy of any document retained which is reasonably required to run a business effectively.

Use of scientific equipment

79. In the exercise of powers under this Ordinance an officer may use such scientific and technical equipment as he sees fit in order to examine goods and search for any thing.

Rewards

80. Subject to any direction of the Chief Officer as to amount, the Fiscal Officer may pay a reward in respect of any service rendered in relation to an assigned matter which appears to merit reward.

~~Arrest without warrant (b)~~

~~81.—(1) An officer may without warrant arrest any person who is committing or attempting to commit any offence under the customs legislation(c) or associated legislation which is punishable with imprisonment.~~

~~Arrest without warrant (d)~~

~~81.—(1) An officer may, without warrant, arrest any person who is committing or attempting to commit an offence under the customs or associated legislation punishable by imprisonment.~~

~~(2) Where an officer arrests a person in accordance with subsection (1), the following provisions of this section apply.~~

- (a) Amended by Ordinance 7/2016 – came into force on 01 May 2016
 - (b) Section 81 repealed and replaced by Ordinance 22/2012 – came into force on 17 September 2012
 - (c) Word inserted by Ordinance 5/2010 – came into force on 10 March 2010
 - (d) Section 81 repealed and replaced by Ordinance 30/2012 – came into force on 22 November 2012

~~(3) The officer must cause the arrested person to be delivered to a police station, or into the custody of a police officer for delivery to a police station, as soon as possible.~~

~~(4) The arrested person may be detained by the police as if the arrest by the officer had been an arrest by a police officer under section 14(1) of the Criminal Procedure Ordinance(a) (without the need for any second arrest).~~

~~(5) Section 17 of the Criminal Procedure Ordinance applies, in relation to the arrest, with the following modifications—~~

~~(a) subject to paragraph (b), any function conferred by section 17 of the Criminal Procedure Ordinance on the officer in charge of the police station may be performed—~~

~~(i) after consulting the officer in charge of the police station, by the relevant customs officer; or~~

~~(ii) after consulting the relevant customs officer, by the officer in charge of the police station;~~

~~(b) where the offence appears to be of a serious nature, the function of bringing the arrested person before a court referred to in section 17(1)(a) of the Criminal Procedure Ordinance must be performed by the relevant customs officer (and not by the officer in charge of the police station).~~

~~(6) Section 24 of the Criminal Procedure Ordinance applies, in relation to the arrest, with the modification that the application to the court for the arrested person to be remanded in custody must be made by, or on behalf of, the relevant customs officer (and not by a police officer).~~

~~(7) In this section, “relevant customs officer” means the arresting officer or any other officer nominated by the Fiscal Officer.~~

Arrest without warrant (b)

~~81. (1) An officer may, without warrant, arrest any person who is, or whom the officer reasonably suspects to be, committing or attempting to commit an offence under the customs legislation or associated legislation punishable by imprisonment.~~

~~(2) Where an officer arrest a person in accordance with subsection (1), the following provisions of this section apply:~~

~~(3) The arrested person—~~

~~(a) may be detained at a customs station for a period of up to 3 hours for the purpose of investigating the offence; and~~

~~(b) must, unless released, be delivered within that period to a police station or into the custody of a police officer for delivery to a police station.~~

~~(4) The arrested person may be detained, and the offence investigated, by the police as if the arrest had been made by a police officer under section 14(1) of the Criminal Procedure Ordinance(c), without the need for any second arrest; and for the purposes of that Ordinance, the arrest must be treated as having been made at the time the person was arrested by the officer under subsection (1) of this section.~~

(a) Cap. 155, Laws of Cyprus, 1959 ed. Legislation of the former colony of Cyprus has effect in the Areas by virtue of article 5 of the Sovereign Base Areas of Akrotiri and Dhekelia Order in Council 1960. Schedule 2 to the Interpretation Ordinance 2012 provides for the interpretation of such legislation. Section 17 of the Criminal Procedure Ordinance is amended by Ordinances 1/66, 17/03 and 43/03.

(b) Repealed and replaced by Ordinance 7/2016 – came into force on 01 May 2016

(c) Cap. 155, Laws of Cyprus, 1959 ed. Legislation of the former colony of Cyprus has effect in the Areas by virtue of article 5 of the Sovereign Base Areas of Akrotiri and Dhekelia Order in Council 1960. Schedule 2 to the Interpretation Ordinance 2012 provides for the interpretation of such legislation. Section 17 of the Criminal Procedure Ordinance is amended by Ordinances 1/66, 17/03 and 43/03

~~(5) Section 17 of the Criminal Procedure Ordinance applies, in relation to the arrest, with the modification that any function conferred by that section on the officer in charge of the police station may be performed—~~

~~(a) after consulting the officer in charge of the police station, by the relevant customs officer; or~~

~~(b) after consulting the relevant customs officer, by the officer in charge of the police station.~~

~~(6) Section 24 of the Criminal Procedure Ordinance applies, in relation to the arrest, with the modification that the application to the court for the arrested person to be remanded in custody may be made by, or on behalf of, the relevant customs officer (as well as by a police officer holding the rank of inspector or above).~~

~~(7) In this section “relevant customs officer” means the arresting officer or any other officer nominated by the Fiscal Officer.~~

Arrest without warrant

81.—(1) An officer may, without warrant, arrest a person in the following circumstances—

(a) if the person is, or the officer reasonably suspects the person to be, committing or attempting to commit an offence under the customs legislation or associated legislation punishable by imprisonment;

(b) if the person obstructs the officer in the execution of the officer’s duty;

(c) if the officer has reasonable grounds for believing that the person has escaped from or is attempting to escape from lawful custody;

(d) if the officer has reasonable grounds for believing that a warrant of arrest in respect of the person has been issued.

(2) Subsection (1) does not limit a power of arrest in any other Ordinance.

(3) The arrested person—

(a) may be detained at a customs station for a period of up to six hours for the purpose of investigating the offence; and

(b) must, unless released, be delivered within that period to a police station or into the custody of a police officer for delivery to a police station. 3

(4) The arrested person must be detained or released by the police in accordance with section 23 of the Criminal Procedure Ordinance 2016 (arrest without warrant: disposal of persons arrested)(a) as if the arrest by the customs officer had been an arrest without a warrant by a police officer, without the need for any second arrest; and for the purposes of that Ordinance, the arrest must be treated as having been made at the time the person was arrested by the officer under this section (see also subsection (5)(d)).

(5) The following provisions of the Criminal Procedure Ordinance 2016 apply in relation to an arrest made, or to the power of arrest, under this section—

(a) section 16 (arrest) applies as if any reference to a police officer were a reference to an officer;

(b) section 17 (search of arrested person) applies as if any reference to a police officer were a reference to an officer;

(c) section 18 (intimate search of arrested person) applies as if any reference to a police officer of at least the rank of inspector were a reference to the Fiscal Officer or any officer designated for such purposes by the Fiscal Officer;

(d) section 23 (arrest without warrant: disposal of persons arrested) applies as if—

(a) Ordinance 9/2016

- (i) the reference in subsection (1) to a police officer were a reference to an officer; and
 - (ii) any function conferred on the officer in charge of the police station were conferred—
 - (aa) after consulting the officer in charge of the police station, on the relevant officer; or
 - (ab) after consulting the relevant officer, on the officer in charge of the police station;
 - (e) section 30 (power to remand in police custody, etc) applies as if the reference in subsection (3) to a police officer of the rank of inspector or above were to either—
 - (i) the relevant officer;
 - (ii) a person acting on behalf of the relevant officer; or
 - (iii) a police officer of the rank of inspector or above.
- (5) In this section “relevant officer” means the officer who made the arrest or any other officer nominated by the Fiscal Officer.

PART 17

Return of Property and Compensation

Return of property

82.—(1) For the purposes of this Part “property” means goods, documents and any other thing which is in the custody of the customs authorities of the Administration other than as a result of the exercise of a power to seize as liable to forfeiture.

(2) Unless there are lawful grounds for detention the Fiscal Officer must return property within 2 months of an application having been made by the owner for its return.

(3) An application under subsection (2) shall not be granted unless all duty, tax and other charges on importation or exportation which are due or would be due are paid and 3 months have elapsed since—

- (a) the property came into the custody of the customs authorities ; or
- (b) the conclusion of any proceedings in connection with which the property is held as evidence or otherwise.

(4) Any application under subsection (2) must be made within 28 days of the time periods referred to in subsection (3) (as the case may be).

~~(5) The Fiscal Officer may dispose of any property as he sees fit if there is no application under subsection (2) which is being considered, has been granted and it is now possible to make.~~(a)

(5) The Fiscal Officer may dispose of any property as he sees fit unless an application under subsection (2)—

- (a) is under consideration; or*
- (b) has been granted; or*
- (c) is not yet out of time in accordance with subsection (4).*

(6) Any proceeds of sale arising as a result of a disposal under subsection (5) shall be paid to the Administrator.

(a) Subsection (5) repealed and replaced by Ordinance 5/2010 – came into force on 10 March 2010

Compensation

83.—(1) A person, whose property is or was in the custody of the customs authorities and which is lost, disposed of, damaged or destroyed, may apply to the Chief Officer for compensation for any loss or damage within 28 days of the expiry of the time periods referred to in section 82(3) or the return of the property (as the case may be).

(2) Compensation may only be awarded if—

- (a) the exercise or purported exercise of a power by an officer was not attributable to any neglect or default, including a contravention of ~~a provision of customs legislation, customs legislation or associated legislation~~^(a) by the owner of the property;
- (b) there has been a breach of the right conferred on the owner of the property in accordance with section 3 of the Protection of Property Ordinance 2004^(b); and
- (c) the award is necessary to afford just satisfaction to the owner for that breach.

Amount of compensation

84.—(1) In determining—

- (a) whether an award is necessary in accordance with section 83(2); and
- (b) if so, the amount of any award;

the Chief Officer shall take into account the principles applied by the European Court of Human Rights in relation to the award of compensation under Article 41 of the Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms, agreed by the Council of Europe at Rome on 4th November 1950.

(2) Where the property in respect of which the loss or damage has been suffered is covered by any compensation scheme funded either by the Administration or by the Republic, any amount payable to the owner of the property under the scheme shall be deducted from the amount of compensation which is payable in respect of that property under this Ordinance.

PART 18

Criminal Offences

Falsely assuming character of Fiscal Officer, obstruction and other offences

85.—(1) A person commits an offence if he falsely assumes the name, designation or character of the Fiscal Officer, an officer or an authorised person for the purpose of—

- (a) obtaining admission to any place;
- (b) doing or procuring to be done any act which he would not be entitled to do or procure to be done of his own authority; or
- (c) committing any other unlawful act.

(2) A person who commits an offence under subsection (1) is liable on conviction to a fine in an amount not exceeding ~~£5000~~ ^{€8,543}^(c) or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years or to both penalties.

(3) A person to whom a commission or other written authority has been issued by the Fiscal Officer who—

- (a) is required by the Fiscal Officer to deliver up or account for that commission or authority; and

PART 19

Detention, Seizure and Forfeiture

Detention and seizure of goods as liable to forfeiture

95.—(1) Any thing liable to forfeiture under the customs legislation or associated legislation^(a) may be detained or seized as liable to forfeiture by—

- (a) the Fiscal Officer, an officer or an authorised person;
- (b) a police officer;
- (c) a member of Her Majesty's armed forces.

(2) Where any thing is detained or seized as liable to forfeiture under the customs legislation or otherwise seized under associated legislation by a person other than the Fiscal Officer or officer, that person shall, as soon as possible, subject to subsection (3), either—

- (a) deliver that thing to the nearest customs office; or
- (b) if such delivery is not practicable, give to the Fiscal Officer at the nearest customs office notice in writing of the seizure or detention with full particulars of the thing detained or seized.

(3) Where the person detaining or seizing any thing in relation to an assigned matter is a police officer and that thing is or may be required for use in connection with any proceedings to be brought under other legislation, it may be retained in the custody of the police authorities until either those proceedings are completed or it is decided that no such proceedings shall be brought.

(4) In relation to any thing retained by the police under subsection (3) the provisions of subsection (5), (6) and (7) shall apply.

(5) Notice in writing of the seizure or detention and of the intention to retain the thing in question in the custody of the police, together with full particulars as to that thing, shall be given to the Fiscal Officer at the nearest customs office.

(6) An officer may examine the thing retained and take an account of it at any time while it remains in the custody of the police.

(7) Nothing in ~~section 170 of the Criminal Procedure Ordinance~~^(b) section 176 of the Criminal Procedure Ordinance 2016 (disposal of property in possession of police)^(c) shall apply in relation to any thing detained or seized under customs legislation.

(8) The procedures for the condemnation of goods liable to forfeiture are set out in Schedule 1.

Goods liable to forfeiture

96.—(1) Without prejudice to any other power to detain or seize conferred by this Ordinance, goods or any other thing may be detained or seized as liable to forfeiture in circumstances where—

- (a) in relation to any goods there has been a fraudulent evasion or attempt at evasion of payment of duty;
- (b) goods have been improperly imported;
- (c) goods have been, or steps have been taken with a view to goods being, improperly exported;
- (d) goods have been imported or exported or are about to be exported contrary to a prohibition or restriction imposed under ~~the customs or associated legislation~~ customs legislation or associated legislation^(a) or there has been an attempt to do so;

(a) Text inserted by Ordinance 5/2010 – came into force on 10 March 2010

(b) Cap. 155 and Ordinances 4/60, 19/63, 1/66, 2/72, 2/73, 10/75, 4/78, 11/79, 22/87, 4/92, 8/96, 1/97, 2/99, 17/03, 43/03 and 34/04

(c) Text deleted and new text inserted by Ordinance 7/2016 – came into force on 01 May 2016

- (e) goods chargeable with duty which has not been paid are removed, concealed, loaded or in any other way taken from an approved warehouse, or other premises, or place under customs supervision;
- (f) any thing is mixed, packed or found with or used to transport, carry, contain or conceal any goods liable to forfeiture;
- (g) any thing has been used for the purpose of the commission of an offence under customs legislation or associated legislation(b);
- (h) a term, condition or other requirement imposed by the Fiscal Officer under a licence, approval or in any other way under the ~~customs or associated legislation~~ customs legislation or associated legislation(c) has been reached;
- (i) a document has been produced in relation to goods for the purpose of ~~the customs or associated legislation~~ customs legislation or associated legislation(d) which is untrue in a material particular;
- (j) goods which are chargeable with duty are concealed in a passenger's baggage or are transported contrary to any prohibition or restriction under any enactment (e);
- (k) goods upon which duty has not been paid are being or have been transported, warehoused, harboured, kept, concealed or sold or are so dealt with contrary to any prohibition or restriction under any enactment (f).
- (l) goods have been brought across the line contrary to Council Regulation of 29 April 2004 on a regime under Article 2 of Protocol 10 to the Act of Accession or any Commission Decision or Regulation made under that Regulation.(g)

(2) The fittings, furniture, tackle and other equipment of a ship, aircraft, vehicle or an animal, which is liable to forfeiture under this Ordinance or any other customs legislation, are liable to forfeiture and may be detained or seized.

Detention where untrue export declaration

97. The Fiscal Officer may detain goods where he believes that an export declaration in relation to those goods may be untrue in a material particular.

Forfeiture of larger ships

98.—(1) A ship of 250 or more tons register shall not be liable to forfeiture by virtue of any provision of this Ordinance other than under section 101 unless the offence in connection with which the forfeiture is claimed—

- (a) was substantially the object of the voyage of the ship; or
- (b) was committed while the ship was being pursued by a ship in the service of the Administration after failing to bring to when properly summoned to do so; or
- (c) was committed with the knowledge or connivance of the commander of the ship.

(2) For the purposes of this section, a ship shall be regarded as having been properly summoned to bring if—

- (a) the ship making the summons did so by means of an international signal code or other recognised means;

(a) Text repealed and replaced by Ordinance 5/2010 – came into force on 10 March 2010
 (b) Text inserted by Ordinance 5/2010 – came into force on 10 March 2010
 (c) Text deleted and new text inserted by Ordinance 5/2010 – came into force on 10 March 2010
 (d) Text deleted and new text inserted by Ordinance 5/2010 – came into force on 10 March 2010
 (e) Text inserted by Ordinance 5/2010 – came into force on 10 March 2010
 (f) Text inserted by Ordinance 5/2010 – came into force on 10 March 2010
 (g) Paragraph (l) inserted by Ordinance 5/2010 – came into force on 10 March 2010

- (b) the ship making the summons was identifiable as operating on the official business of the Administration, for the customs authorities or the police or on behalf of the United Kingdom forces; and
- (c) at the time when the summons was made the ship was within the territorial waters of the Areas.

(3) The exemption from forfeiture of any ship under this section shall not affect the liability to forfeiture of any goods it carries.

Forfeiture of ship, aircraft or vehicle constructed to conceal goods

99. Where—

- (a) a ship is or has been within the limits of any customs port or within the territorial waters of the Areas;
- (b) an aircraft is or has been at any place, whether on land or on water, in the Areas;
- (c) a vehicle is or has been within the limits of any customs port or customs airport or at a crossing point; or
- (d) a container designed to be carried on a ship, aircraft or vehicle is or has been within the limits of any customs port or customs airport or at a crossing point, and it is constructed, adapted, altered or fitted in any manner for the purpose of concealing goods then the ship, aircraft, vehicle or container shall be liable to forfeiture.

Forfeiture of ship jettisoning cargo etc.

100.—(1) If any of the cargo of a ship is thrown overboard, staved or destroyed to prevent seizure—

- (a) while the ship is within territorial waters of the Areas; or
- (b) where the ship, having been properly summoned to bring to by any ship in the service of the Areas, fails so to do and is pursued, the ship shall be liable to forfeiture.

(2) A ship shall be regarded as having been properly summoned to bring to where the conditions of section 98(2) are satisfied.

Forfeiture of ship or aircraft unable to account for missing cargo

101. Where the whole or a substantial part of the cargo, of a ship which has been within the limits of a customs port or of an aircraft at a customs airport, goes missing then, unless the master of the ship or commander of the aircraft accounts for the cargo to the satisfaction of the Fiscal Officer, the ship or aircraft shall be liable to forfeiture.

PART 20

Review and Appeal

Reviews of decisions

102.—(1) This section applies to any decision of the Fiscal Officer or officer concerned with the application of customs legislation or associated legislation (a).

(2) A person—

(a) Text inserted by Ordinance 5/2010 – came into force on 10 March 2010

- (a) whose liability to pay any customs duty is determined by, results from or is or will be affected by any decision to which this section applies,
- (b) in relation to whom, or on whose application, such a decision has been made, or
- (c) on or to whom the conditions, limitations, restrictions, prohibitions or other requirements to which such a decision relates are or are to be imposed or applied, may in writing request the Chief Officer to review that decision in accordance with section 103.

(3) The Chief Officer is not required to review any decision unless the request for the review is given before the end of the period of 60 days beginning with the day on which the notice of the decision or of the assessment containing the decision was given to the person requiring the review.

(4) No request may be made under this section to review a decision relating to any power conferred by ~~this Ordinance or other customs or associated legislation~~ customs legislation or associated legislation^(a) to compound proceedings or to detain or seize as liable to forfeiture or as to the liability to forfeiture of any thing detained or seized.

(5) The Fiscal Officer must give written notice of a decision to which this section applies to a person who—

- (a) request such a notification;
- (b) has not previously been given written notice of that decision; and
- (c) if given notice would be entitled to require a review of that decision under subsection (2).

(6) Within 21 days of the date of the notice of the Chief Officer's determination on a review under section 103 a person may request under subsection (2) a decision to be reviewed for a second or subsequent time on the grounds that the Chief Officer did not, on a previous review, have the opportunity to consider certain facts or representations.

Power of Chief Officer on review

103.—(1) The Chief Officer on a request under section 102 must review the decision and may—

- (a) confirm the decision;
- (b) cancel or vary the decision; or
- (c) make a new decision.

(2) Where the Chief Officer—

- (a) is required to review a decision; and
- (b) he does not, within the period of 30 days beginning on the day on which the review was requested give notice of his determination on the review, it shall be assumed for the purposes of this Part the decision is confirmed.

(3) This section shall also apply to any review undertaken by the Chief Officer after the expiration of the time limit set out in section 102(3).

Appeals

104.—(1) An appeal shall lie to the court with respect to a decision by the Chief Officer on a review under section 103.

(2) An appeal under this section shall not be entertained unless the appellant is the person who requested the review.

(3) An appeal shall not be entertained if an amount is outstanding in respect of any liability of the appellant to pay any duty (including an amount of any such duty which would be outstanding if the appeal had already been decided against the appellant) unless—

(a) Text deleted and new text inserted by Ordinance 5/2010 – came into force on 10 March 2010

- (a) the Fiscal Officer has, on the application of the appellant, issued a certificate stating either that—
 - (i) adequate security has been provided for the payment of that amount; or
 - (ii) on the grounds of the hardship that would otherwise be suffered by the appellant, the Fiscal officer either does not require the giving of any security for the payment of that amount or has accepted such lesser security as he considers appropriate; or
- (b) the court decides that the Fiscal Officer should not have refused to issue a certificate under paragraph (a) and is satisfied that any security that would have been reasonable for the Fiscal Officer to accept in the circumstances has been offered.

(4) On an appeal under this section the court may quash or vary any decision and may substitute its own decision.

Regulations for reviews and appeals

105. The Administrator may by regulations—

- (a) make further provision in relation to reviews and appeals;
- (b) add to the decisions which a person may request the Chief Officer to review under section 102(2).

PART 21

Proceedings and Other Matters

Civil and criminal proceedings

106. Prosecutions for offences under ~~customs and associated legislation~~ customs legislation or associated legislation (a) and proceedings for the recovery of duties, taxes or penalties or for the condemnation or forfeiture of ships or other means of conveyance or goods may be instituted by the Fiscal Officer and are subject to the direction of the Attorney General and Legal Adviser.

Power to compound

107.—(1) Save in respect of the criminal offences under section 85 (5), (6) and (7) the Fiscal Officer may compound any proceedings for an offence under the customs legislation on such terms as he thinks proper and on payment of a sum of money not exceeding the maximum penalty provided for the offence.

(2) On payment of such sum no further proceedings for that offence shall be taken against the person concerned and if he is in custody for that offence he shall be released.

Valuation for the purpose of penalties

108. Where a fine for an offence ~~relating to an assigned matter under the customs or the other legislation~~ under customs legislation or associated legislation (b) is required to be fixed by reference to the value of any goods, that value shall be taken as the price which those goods might reasonably be expected to have fetched, after payment of any duty chargeable, if they had been sold in the open market at or about the date of the commission of the offence for which the fine is imposed.

(a) Text deleted and new text inserted by Ordinance 5/2010 – came into force on 10 March 2010

(b) Text deleted and new text inserted by Ordinance 5/2010 – came into force on 10 March 2010

Liability of directors etc.

109.—(1) Where an offence by a body corporate ~~relating to an assigned matter~~ under customs legislation or associated legislation(a) is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to be attributable to any neglect on the part of, a director, manager, secretary or other officer of the body corporate or any other person purporting to act in any such capacity, then that person as well as the body corporate commits that offence and is liable to be proceeded against.

(2) In this section “director”, in relation to any body corporate established under public ownership being a body corporate whose affairs are managed by its members, means a member of that body corporate.

(3) A person who commits an offence under subsection (1) is liable jointly and severally with the body corporate for the purposes of any civil proceedings.

Service of notices and other documents

110. A notice, claim, decision, direction or other document which is required to be served on any person ~~for the purposes of an assigned matter~~ under customs legislation or associated legislation(b) is duly served on the person concerned if it is—

- (a) addressed to and delivered personally to him or to his representative;
- (b) addressed to him and left or sent to him at his usual or last known home address or business address, or in the case of a body corporate, at its registered or principal office.

Certificates from the Fiscal Officer

111.—(1) In any proceeding ~~relating to an assigned matter~~ under customs legislation or associated legislation(c) a certificate from the Fiscal Officer stating that—

- (a) a person was or was not at a certain date registered in a register maintained ~~in relation to an assigned matter~~ under customs legislation or associated legislation(d);
- (b) a declaration or other document, which is required under ~~the customs or other legislation,~~ under customs legislation or associated legislation(e) has or has not been submitted at a particular date;
- (c) an amount of duty or tax which appears to be due on the basis of a declaration has not been paid;
- (d) an amount of duty or tax assessed by the Fiscal Officer has not been paid;
- (e) a financial penalty imposed ~~in relation to an assigned matter~~ under customs legislation or associated legislation(f) has not been paid; or
- (f) interest imposed ~~in relation to an assigned matter~~ under customs legislation or associated legislation (g) has not been paid, is sufficient evidence of the fact it certifies unless the contrary is proved.

(2) A copy of a document delivered to the Fiscal Officer for the purposes of ~~customs or associated legislation~~ customs legislation or associated legislation(h) and certified by him as a true copy is admissible evidence in any civil or criminal proceedings to the extent that the document itself is admissible.

(a) Text deleted and new text inserted by Ordinance 5/2010 – came into force on 10 March 2010
(b) Text deleted and new text inserted by Ordinance 5/2010 – came into force on 10 March 2010

SCHEDULE 1

(Section 95)

Provisions relating to forfeiture

Notice of Seizure

1. The Fiscal Officer or authorised officer shall give notice in writing of the seizure of any thing as liable to forfeiture together with the grounds of seizure to any person who was or appeared to be at the time of the seizure the owner or one of the owners of the thing seized.
2. Notice need not be given under this paragraph if the seizure was made in the presence of—
 - (a) the person whose offence or suspected offence occasioned the seizure; or
 - (b) the owner or any of the owners, the holder or any person purporting to act as the owner of the thing seized or any servant or agent of an owner;
 - (c) in the case of any thing seized in any ship or aircraft or in the case of any ship or aircraft seized, the master or commander.
3. Notice under paragraph 1 shall be given in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly served on the person concerned—
 - (a) if it has been served in accordance with section 110; or
 - (b) where ~~he has no address within the Areas or~~ (a) his address is unknown, by publication of a notice of seizure in the Gazette.

Notice of Claim

4. Any person claiming that any thing seized as liable to forfeiture is not so liable shall within one month of the date of—
 - (a) the seizure,
 - (b) the notice of seizure; or,
 - (c) the publication of the notice of seizure in the Gazette,give notice of his claim in writing at any customs office.
5. A notice under paragraph 4 shall be signed and specify the name and address of the claimant and the grounds on which the claim is based.
6. ~~Where a claimant lives or resides outside the Areas, the notice shall~~ If the claimant intends to be represented by an advocate, the notice must (b) also specify the name and address of an advocate who is qualified to act and is authorised to accept service of process and to act on behalf of the claimant. Service of process upon an advocate so specified shall be deemed to be proper service upon the claimant.

Condemnation

7. If, on the expiration of the period under paragraph 4 for the giving of notice of claim in respect of any thing, no such notice has been given or if a notice has been given but a requirement of paragraph 5 ~~or 6~~(c) is not complied with, the thing in question shall be deemed to have been duly condemned as forfeited.
8. Where notice of claim in respect of any thing is duly given in accordance with this Schedule, the Fiscal Officer shall take proceedings within a reasonable time for the condemnation of that thing by the court, and if the court finds that the thing was at the time of seizure liable to forfeiture, the court shall condemn it as forfeited.

9. Where any thing is in accordance with either of paragraphs 7 or 8 condemned or deemed to have been condemned as forfeited, then, without prejudice to any delivery up or sale of the goods by the Fiscal Officer under paragraph 14, the forfeiture shall have effect in the case of paragraph 7 as from the date when the period specified in paragraph 4 has expired and in the case of condemnation by the court under paragraph 8, as from the date of the issue of the court order.

Proceedings for Condemnation by Court

10. Proceedings for condemnation shall be civil proceedings and may be instituted in the court of the Areas.

11.—(1) A claimant or his advocate shall at least 24 hours before the date set for the hearing of the proceedings for condemnation, make a statement upon oath ~~before the Registrar~~^(a) that the goods seized as liable to forfeiture were or were to the best of his knowledge and belief the property of the claimant at the time of the seizure.

(2) A claimant shall give such security for the costs of the proceedings as may be determined by the court.

(3) If any requirement of this paragraph is not complied with within the relevant period, the court shall give judgment for the Fiscal Officer.

12.—(1) On a request being made to the Fiscal Officer the claimant may make an inspection of any seized goods in relation to which condemnation proceedings are being taken.

(2) Where an appeal is made against the decision of the court in any condemnation proceedings in relation to any thing, that thing shall be left with the Fiscal Officer or at any customs office until the proceedings have been concluded.

Provisions as to Proof

13. In any proceedings arising out of the seizure of any thing, the fact, form and manner of the seizure shall be taken to have been as set out in the process without any further evidence, unless the contrary is proved.

Power to deal with seizure before condemnation etc.

14. Where any thing has been seized as liable to forfeiture, the Fiscal Officer may at any time if he sees fit and notwithstanding that the thing has not yet been condemned, or is not yet deemed to have been condemned, as forfeited—

- (a) deliver it up to any claimant upon his paying such sum as the Fiscal Officer thinks fit being a sum not exceeding that which in his opinion represents the value of the thing and any duty and tax chargeable on it which has not been paid; or
- (b) if the thing seized is a living creature or is in the opinion of the Fiscal Officer of a perishable nature, sell or destroy it.

15.—(1) If, where any seized thing is delivered up, sold, destroyed or damaged, it is held in proceedings taken under this Schedule that the thing was not liable to forfeiture at the time of its seizure, then ~~on an application to the Chief Officer made within 28 days of the decision of the court~~^(b) the claimant shall receive—

- (a) an amount equal to any sum paid under paragraph 14(a);
- (b) where goods have been sold, an amount equal to the proceeds of sale; or
- (c) where the seized goods have been destroyed or damaged, compensation in accordance with the provisions of section 83(2) and section 84.
