2. The Ordinance reflects restrictive measures imposed in the Republic under Law 12(I) of 2013 of the Republic.
3. Section 5 of the Ordinance prohibits, subject to the following exceptions, the export of banknotes from the Areas other than to those areas of the Republic under the effective control of the government of the Republic:
  - a person leaving the Areas via the Pergamos or Strovilia crossing points may take banknotes worth up to €300 per day (residents of the Areas or the Republic) or €500 per day (non-residents and entitled persons (as defined));
  - a person leaving the Areas by a customs airport (i.e., RAF Akrotiri) or a customs port (as defined) may take banknotes worth up to €1,000 or, if an entitled person, banknotes of an unlimited amount in accordance with a permit issued by the Fiscal Officer;

4. The prohibition does not apply to the Crown, associated service organisations or members of diplomatic missions to the Republic.
5. Section 6 provides that the Ordinance is to be treated as customs legislation for the purposes of the Customs Ordinance 2005. This means, for example, that banknotes being exported in breach of the Ordinance may be seized under section 95 of the Customs Ordinance 2005.
