THE CUSTOMS AND EXCISE ORDINANCE, 1969

(Ordinances 12 of 1969, 9 of 1971 and 2 of 1975).

ORDER MADE UNDER SECTION 59 (4).

In exercise of the powers vested in him by subsection (4) of section 59 of the Customs and Excise Ordinance, 1969, the Administrator makes the following Order.

PART I—INTRODUCTORY.

1. This Order may be cited as the Customs Duty (Personal Reliefs) Order, 1975.

Short title.

2.—(1) In this Order—

Interpretation.

“accompanied baggage”, in relation to a person entering the Areas means baggage which he brings with him when he enters;

“crew”, in relation to a ship or aircraft, means all persons actually employed in the working or service of the ship or aircraft including the master of the ship and the commander of the aircraft, and the reference to a member of a crew shall be construed accordingly;

“depart finally from the Island of Cyprus” and cognate expressions shall be construed as meaning departing from the Island of Cyprus and not returning for a period of at least six months, or, if returning within that period, not remaining there for longer than three months, or, in any particular case, such other period as the Fiscal Officer may allow;

“dependant”, in relation to a person, means any of the following, that is to say—

- (a) the wife or husband of that person; and
- (b) any other person wholly or mainly maintained by him, or in his custody, charge or care;

“fishing vessel” means a fishing vessel, whether a Republican ship or not, within the meaning of the Fishing Vessels (Registration, Sale, Transfer and Mortgage) Law of the Republic;

Law 77 of 1971
(Republic of Cyprus).

“goods” do not include motor vehicles, tobacco, perfumed or other spirits, or wine;

“ship” includes a fishing vessel.

(2) Words or expressions contained in this Order shall, unless otherwise herein defined or the context otherwise requires, bear the same meaning as in the Customs and Excise Ordinance, 1969 or any Ordinance amending or substituted for the same.

(3) For the purposes of this Order, a person shall be treated as resident outside the Island of Cyprus, if and only if, during the period of twenty-four months ending on the date of his entry into the Island of Cyprus he has been so resident for a period of, or for periods together amounting to, not less than twelve months.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-paragraph (3) a person may be treated as resident outside the Island of Cyprus if, after he has left the Island of Cyprus with the intention of taking up residence outside it for a period exceeding twelve months, he returns temporarily to the Island of Cyprus within a period of twelve months from the date when he so left, and in relation to such a person the condition in paragraph 6 (ii) shall be read as if a period of six months was therein specified in place of twelve months.

PART II — GENERAL.

General reliefs.

3. Subject to the provisions of this Part—

(i) a person entering the Areas, who at the time when he enters is not a member of the crew of the ship or the aircraft in which he enters, shall be relieved from payment of duty on articles of the descriptions, in the quantities, to the extent and under the conditions shown in Schedule 1;

Schedule 1.

(ii) a person entering the Areas who, at the time when he enters is a member of the crew of the ship or the aircraft in which he enters, shall be relieved from payment of duty on articles of the descriptions, in the quantities, to the extent and under the conditions shown in Schedule 2.

Schedule 2.

Conditions of relief, etc.

4.—(1) No relief shall be afforded under this Part—

- (a) in respect of tobacco, spirits (other than perfumed spirits) or wine, unless those articles are intended solely for the personal use of the person who imports them;
- (b) in respect of any articles, unless those articles are carried with the person who imports them or are contained in his accompanied baggage.

(2) All the reliefs for which provision is made in this Part are afforded subject to the condition that the articles in question shall not be imported nor used for any commercial purpose, and if that condition is not complied with in relation to any article, that article shall, unless the non-compliance was sanctioned by the Fiscal Officer, be liable to forfeiture.

(3) For the purposes of this Part, any reference to articles of a specified total value is a reference either to a single thing whose value does not exceed that specified total value or to two or more things the value of which taken together does not exceed that specified total value:

Provided always that where relief either—

- (i) has not been afforded in respect of articles to a specified total value, or
- (ii) has been afforded in respect of articles to a total value of less than that specified total value, the specified total value in the former case, and the amount of the difference between that total value and the specified total value in the latter case, shall be applied to reduce the value of other articles (except spirits, tobacco and wine) in respect of which duty is payable.

PART III — TEMPORARY VISITORS.

5. Subject to the provisions of this Part and of Part V, a person entering the Areas who—

Conditions of relief on importation.

- (a) is resident outside the Island of Cyprus,
- (b) intends to depart finally from the Island of Cyprus within twelve months from the date of his entry, shall not be required to pay any duty chargeable in respect of goods imported by him whether or not carried with him or contained in his accompanied baggage, of the descriptions, in the quantities, to the extent and under the conditions shown in Schedule 3.

Schedule 3.

6. The following conditions shall be complied with after importation in relation to any goods in respect of which payment of duty has not been required under paragraph 5, namely—

Conditions to be complied with after importation.

- (i) the goods shall not be, or be offered, exposed or advertised to be, lent, hired, pledged, given away, exchanged, sold or otherwise disposed of in the Island of Cyprus ;
- (ii) the goods shall be exported from the Island of Cyprus on the departure from the Island of Cyprus of the person who imported them, but in any event not later than twelve months either from the date of their importation or from the date of the entry into the Island of Cyprus of the person who imported them, whichever is the earlier date, or in any particular case within such longer period as the Fiscal Officer may allow.

PART IV — INTENDING RESIDENTS AND RESIDENTS WHO HAD BEEN ABSENT FROM THE ISLAND OF CYPRUS FOR A PERIOD EXCEEDING THREE MONTHS.

7. Subject to the provisions of this Part and of Part V, a person entering the Areas who satisfies the Fiscal Officer that he intends to take up or resume residence in the Island of Cyprus, shall not be required to pay any duty chargeable in respect of goods imported by him, whether or not carried with him or contained in his accompanied baggage, of the descriptions, in the quantities, to the extent and under the conditions shown in Schedule 4.

Conditions of relief on importation, in respect of intending residents.

Schedule 4.

8. Subject to the provisions of this Part and of Part V, a person who is resident in the Island of Cyprus and has been absent from the Island of Cyprus for a period exceeding three months shall not be required to pay any duty chargeable in respect of goods imported by him, whether or not carried with him or contained in his accompanied baggage, of the descriptions, in the quantities, to the extent and under the conditions shown in Schedule 5.

Conditions of relief on importation in respect of residents absent for over three months.

Schedule 5.

Conditions to be complied with after importation.

9. The following condition shall be complied with after importation in relation to any goods in respect of which payment of duty has not been required under paragraph 7 or 8, namely, the goods shall not be, or be offered, exposed or advertised to be, lent, hired, pledged, given away, exchanged, sold or otherwise disposed of in the Island of Cyprus within a period of two years from the date on which such relief was afforded.

PART V — APPLICATION.

Compliance with prescribed conditions for relief.

10.—(1) If relief from payment of duty is granted under any Part of this Order subject to a specified intention on the part of the importer in relation to his departure from the Island of Cyprus, the duration of his visit or the use of the goods in respect of which relief has been afforded, it is a condition of the relief that any such intention shall be fulfilled.

(2) If relief from payment of the duty chargeable in respect of any goods has been afforded under any Part of this Order, and subsequently the Fiscal Officer is not satisfied that any condition subject to which such relief was granted has been complied with, then, unless the Fiscal Officer otherwise decides, such duty shall (except to the extent that the Fiscal Officer may see fit to waive payment of the whole or any part thereof) become immediately payable by the person to whom the relief was afforded and the goods shall be liable to forfeiture.
