THE LAND ACQUISITION ORDINANCE

(Cap. 226 - Laws of Cyprus - and Ordinances 12 of 1963,
9 of 1964, 1 of 1986, 4 of 1987, 19 of 1988 and 10 of 1993).

NOTICE UNDER SECTION 6.

With reference to Notification No. 37 published in Supplement No. 3 in the Gazette No. 1050 of 23rd (Twenty third) May 1995 (One Thousand Nine Hundred and Ninety Five), NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the following rights and privileges are required to be acquired for the undertaking of public utility mentioned therein, that is to say:-

The privileges conferred upon the community of Akrotiri over that part of the Main State Forest of Akrotiri set out in the plan referred to in this Notice, which privileges were conferred under the terms of a Court Settlement between the community and the Attorney-General of the Colonial Government following Action No.667 of 1943 in the District Court of Limassol which Settlement was modified by an Agreement between representatives of the community and the Legal Advisor to the Administrator of the Sovereign Base Areas of Akrotiri and Dhekelia dated 10th (Tenth) September, 1963 (One Thousand Nine Hundred and Sixty Three), NAMELY THE RIGHT to graze, cut, collect and dispose of reed and other natural growth, the right to use and exploit water and the right to reclaim any part and extent of land mentioned therein and any other rights relating thereto which are enjoyed by any persons whether by virtue of any interest in the land or otherwise.

Any person claiming to have any right or interest in the said rights and privileges who objects to the acquisition, is required within twenty-one days from the date of the publication of this Notice to send to me a statement of his right and interest and the evidence thereof and of any claim made by him in respect of such right or interest.

Her Majesty's Secretary of State for Defence is willing to treat for the acquisition of the said rights and privileges.

A plan showing the land, extending to 3 (Three) Hectares, 0 (Zero) Decares and 100 (One Hundred) square metres or thereabouts, affected by the rights and privileges set out above is available for inspection at the Area Office, Akrotiri.

Dated this 24th day of July, 1996.

No. 43*THE CONTAGIOUS DISEASES (ANIMALS) ORDINANCE 1988
(Ordinance 22 of 1988).*ORDER MADE BY THE ADMINISTRATOR UNDER SECTIONS 3 AND 4.

In exercise of the powers vested in him by Sections 3 and 4 of the Contagious Diseases (Animals) Ordinance, 1988 the Administrator hereby makes the following Order:-

1. This Order may be cited as the Prevention and Combatting of Echinococciasis Order, 1996.

2.-(1) In this Order, unless the context otherwise requires:-

“Animal” means cattle, horses, goats, sheep, pigs and dogs;

“Ordinance” means the Contagious Diseases (Animals) Ordinance, 1988.

(2) Any terms or expressions used in this Order, unless the context otherwise requires, shall have the meaning assigned to them in the Ordinance.

3. The Sovereign Base Areas of Akrotiri and Dhekelia are hereby declared to be infected with Echinococciasis.

4.-(1) No person shall slaughter, or cause or permit to be slaughtered, any animal within the Areas except in a slaughter house which has a pit or incinerator for the disposal of offals.

(2) No person shall remove, or cause or permit to be removed the organs of any animal slaughtered as provided in sub-paragraph (1) from the place of slaughter to any other place without the previous inspection of such organs by the Chief Officer or any officer authorised by him.

(3) Every person who slaughters, or causes or permits to be slaughtered, any animal, shall immediately report such slaughter to the Chief Officer or any officer authorised by him and shall make the carcase and organs thereof available to him for inspection.

5. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph 4, no person shall remove, store, process, display for sale or otherwise use any organs or any part of the carcase of an animal which is infected or for which there is reasonable suspicion that it is infected with echinococciasis.

6.-(1) With the exception of the case provided for in sub-paragraph (2) hereinafter, every carcase of an animal which is killed or dies from any cause shall immediately after its death be destroyed by burning or burying it at a depth of at least six feet by its owner or the person having control over it.

(2) If the carcase of the animal is, or any of its organs appear to be, infected or if there is reasonable suspicion that it is infected with echinococciasis, its owner or the person having control over it shall -

(a) notify immediately the Chief Officer of this fact;

(b) keep intact the carcase and its organs so that they can be placed at the disposal of the Chief Officer for the purpose of carrying out the necessary microscopic or laboratory examination; and

- (c) burn or bury the carcase and its organs under the supervision and according to the instructions of the Chief Officer.

7.-(1) Whenever it is established, either after microscopic or laboratory examination, that any animal or slaughtered animal is infected with echinococcosis, the Chief Officer or any officer authorised by him may impose upon its owner or the person having control over it such restrictions and conditions as he may consider necessary for the purpose of limiting the spread of echinococcosis and in particular he may require -

- (a) restrictions on the movement of his animals within a specified place;
- (b) the official marking and counting of his animals;
- (c) the owner to notify losses or deaths of his animals; and
- (d) the prohibition of sales, removal or slaughter of his animals, except with the permission of the Chief Officer who may specify a specific place of slaughter.

(2) Animals which are proved to have been removed or transported in contravention of any restrictions or conditions of permission granted for this purpose under sub-paragraph (1), are liable to immediate confiscation by the Chief Officer or any officer authorised by him. The Chief Officer may, at his discretion, give directions for the killing, destruction or other disposition of the confiscated animal.

8. Local or communal authorities shall be responsible for the burning or burial of the carcasses or organs of animals which are abandoned and unburied within their village boundaries.

9. The feeding of dogs with raw organs or any raw part of any animal is prohibited.

10. No person shall be allowed to take a dog or permit the entrance of a dog into any premises or place where animals are slaughtered or where carcasses or organs of any animals are destroyed by any means.

11.-(1) Following an appropriate notice by the Chief Officer, every person who owns or controls a dog shall ensure that such dog shall undergo a medical examination or be subjected to preventive treatment against echinococcosis at a place and time specified in the notice and upon payment of such examination and treatment fees as may be specified by the Chief Officer.

(2) Every dog owner or person in whose care or control a dog is found shall ensure that such dog is under his immediate supervision and is not exposed to any risks of echinococcosis infection.

(3) Following the examination or the preventive treatment of any dog the Chief Officer shall provide the owner or the person in whose control the dog is found with a special form in which shall be entered inter alia particulars of identification of the dog, the date of examination and the preventive treatment if applicable.

(4) This form shall be kept by the dog owner or person in whose control the dog is found and presented for examination by the Chief Officer or any person authorised by him or by a Police Officer.

12.-(1) The Chief Officer or any person authorised by him or any Police Officer may enter at any reasonable time any vehicle or premises or place in order to ascertain whether there is any carcase or part of any animal and whether the provisions of the Ordinance or this Order are observed.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the provisions of sub-paragraph (1) the Chief Officer or any person authorised by him or any Police Officer may enter any vehicle or premises or other place in order to ascertain whether there is any dog which has not been subjected to the examination or the preventive treatment provided for in sub-paragraph (1) of paragraph 11.

13. Any person who contravenes or fails to comply with any provisions of this Order shall be guilty of an offence and shall on conviction be liable to the penalties provided in Section 11 of the Ordinance.

14. The Contagious Diseases (Animals) (Amendment) General Orders and Regulations, 1969 are hereby revoked.

Dated this 25th day of July, 1996.
