EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

Introduction

1. This explanatory note relates to the Places of Entertainment (Amendment) (No.2) Regulations 2010 (“the Regulations”). It has been prepared by the Office of the Attorney General and Legal Adviser in order to assist the reader of the Regulations. It does not form part of the Regulations.

2. The note should be read in conjunction with the Regulations. It is not, and is not meant to be, a comprehensive description of the Regulations. So when a regulation or part of a regulation does not seem to require any explanation or comment, none is given.

Particular points

3. The Regulations amend the Places of Entertainment Regulations 1999 (“the principal Regulations”). They revoke and replace the Places of Entertainment (Amendment) Regulations 2010 which were gazetted on 21 April 2010 (“the revoked Regulations”). The revoked Regulations were identical in substance but contained a technical error in the numbering in regulation 6. The Regulations correct that error.

4. The amendments to regulation 8 and Schedule 2 replicate the effect of amendments to the equivalent regulations in the Republic (the Places of Entertainment Regulations, Republican PI 265/86). The reference in regulation 8 to the surcharge payable under section 11 of the Places of Entertainment Ordinance 1999 is removed pursuant to the abolition of that surcharge by the Places of Entertainment (Amendment) Ordinance 2010. Licence fees are increased by the new Schedule 2.

5. A provision dealing with delegation of functions to the Republic is inserted (new regulation 37), so that the previous delegations under section 24 of the Delegation of Functions to the Republic Ordinance 2007 (“the 2007 Ordinance”) now appear on the face of the principal Regulations.

6. A new definition of “Fire Service” is inserted in the principal Regulations, reflecting the new definition in the Fire Service Ordinance 2010. The function of the Fire Service under regulation 11(8) (giving directions as to fire protection measures and equipment) is also now delegated to the Republic. The delegation of this function is modified so as to disapply section 17 of the 2007 Ordinance (which prevents the delegation of functions to Republican police officers) in respect of members of the Fire Service of the Republic who are also police officers.

7. Finally, the opportunity has been taken to correct the erroneous reference to section 22 of the 1999 Ordinance in the long title and enacting words of the principal Regulations, which were in fact made under section 17 of that Ordinance.
