EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

1. This explanatory note relates to the Motor Vehicles and Road Traffic Regulations 2013 (Identification Marks and Registration Plates) (Commencement) Order 2013 (the “Order”). It has been prepared by the Office of the Attorney-General and Legal Adviser in order to assist the reader and should be read in conjunction with the Order.
2. The Order brings regulation 10(6) of, and Parts 1, 2, 3 and 5 of Schedule 2A to, the Motor Vehicles and Road Traffic Regulations 2013 (the “Regulations”) into force from 20 August 2013. All other provisions in the Regulations came into force on 1 July 2013.

In accordance with regulation 10(3) of the Regulations, the Order also specifies the date until which identification marks and registration plates must conform with the requirements of Schedule 2 to the Regulations and the date from which they must conform with the requirements in Schedule 2A. Part 4 of Schedule 2A (criteria for granting authorisation to a workshop that manufactures and fixes registration plates) came into force on 1 July 2013.
5. Regulation 6 makes clear that this Order does not affect any vehicles who have identification marks or registration plates that were issued or affixed to the vehicle before 20 August in accordance with corresponding Republican legislation.
